ARSON RING TRACED TO SOUTH

Confession in Oakland May Lead to Many More Arrests

List of Burright Fires Reveals Amazing Plan of Fraud

Word is being awaited in Oakland of the probable arrest of members of the "arson trust" in Los Angeles and San Diego, following the amazing confession made by Charles L. Burright and his wife, now awaiting examination in the Oakland city jail. The Burrights have confessed to knowledge of 26 incendiary fires, many of which Burright himself handled. The insurance collected totaled over $20,000 for the fires concerning which the police have obtained information.

Scientific methods of handling a fire so as to prevent the possible loss of life and to make the detection of its incendiary nature almost an impossibility were worked out experimentally by Burright and Sanford W. Currier, now under arrest at Portland, Ore., for fires in that city.

Members of the gang, said to include seven men and two women in addition to the three members under arrest in Oakland and Portland, have been at work since 1909. Over 32 fires have been set by different members of the gang, so far as known by the police, and it has worked in fourteen cities, from Calexico on the south to Tacoma in the north.

Turpentine, combined with dry shavings and excelsior was used to make the fires spread quickly. Locations of proposed fires were studied, with regard to winds and the possibility of preventing the fire from spreading to inhabited dwellings. The cities were mapped out with regard to the location of fire hydrants and no two fires were planned successively that would come under the attention of the same insurance adjuster.

Lots in outlying districts were purchased, the police say, on the installment plan, and homes built, to be paid for in some "building and loan" company. They were lavishly furnished, the furniture also being purchased on the installment plan.

REMOVED FURNITURE.

Before the fire the furniture would be removed and broken glass, castors, pieces of iron and old bedding and mattresses obtained at a second-hand store, substituted for the good furniture to deceive the insurance adjusters.

Burright told Captain of Inspectors W. J. Petersen that Currier, whom he knew as Richard Currier, taught him the "elements of arson" theory and practice six years ago. The two worked together for several years and gained a number of assistants, to whom they taught their customs. Recently they parted company and have worked separately for two years.

The police say they believe that Mrs. Jean Burright, who is jointly charged with her husband, was not a principal in the arson work, but that she had guilty knowledge of it. Mrs. Burright is still under arrest, however, and will probably be held until after her testimony has been obtained at the preliminary examination, September 29.

Of those being sought by the police, Captain Petersen was willing to disclose the name of M. J. Snyder, only Snyder is also known as James Selig. His arrest was sought in Portland, but he slipped through the hands of the police.

Captain Petersen says he does not want one Irvin Barnaman, a brother of Mrs. Burright, in connection with the present arson case. Barnamann was arrested with the others last January on a charge of obtaining property under false pretences, but was released.

Twelve cities on the coast have suffered at the hands of this arson ring, according to Burright. They are Tacoma, Seattle, Portland Los Angeles, San Diego, Pasadena, Long Beach, Calexico, San Jose, Englewood, Richmond and Oakland.

LIST OF FIRES.

Burright says that the first house, which he built, insured and then burned, was in Portland, soon after he met Currier. The arson ring collected $1800 insurance on that job. Among the other fires, confessed as part of his crimes, are the following:

In 1910, at Richmond, Contra Costa county, two houses; insurance collected $1896.

County Line, Contra Costa county, one house, insurance collected, $850.

Portland, Ore., one house, failed to burn down.

Oakland, one house at Forty-eighth avenue and the Foothill boulevard; collected $350 insurance. One house at Eighty-second avenue and the Foothill boulevard; collected $500.

In 1912, Los Angeles, one house, collected $800.

Tremont Station, Los Angeles, two houses, collected $2400.

Beverly Hills, Los Angeles, one house; insurance collected $800.

South Tacoma, Wash., one house; insurance collected, $700.

Tacoma, Wash., one house, insurance collected, $841.

South Columbus, Seattle, one house, insurance collected $800.

Santa Monica two cottages; insurance collected, $1000.

In 1913, San Jose, two houses; insurance collected, $1400.

Englewood, Cal., one cottage, insurance collected $800.

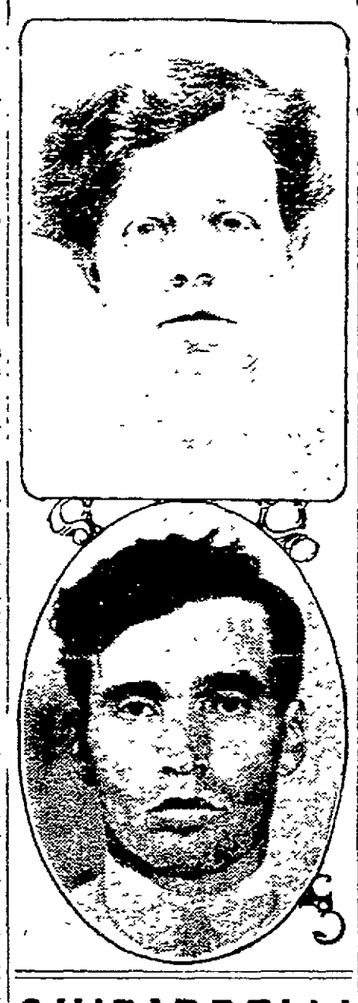
SHIPS CRASH; ONE DIES

CHARLES L. BURRIGHT AND HIS WIFE, AWAITING EXAMINATION IN THE CITY PRISON FOLLOWING THEIR "ARSON RING" CONFESSION.



GHIRARDELLI DIVORCED BY WIFE

Constant attendance at road houses, which were never left until the doors were closed for the night, and worry caused by the actions of her husband, made Mrs. Nina Ghirardelli so ill that she has been under the care of physicians for the past three years, according to the testimony on which Judge Donahue today granted her an interlocutory decree of divorce from Joseph Ghirardelli, son of the late chocolate king.

All of this constituted extreme cruelty, in the opinion of the court, and Mrs. Ghirardelli had no trouble in securing the divorce decree.

Mrs. Ghirardelli is now living at 355 Newton avenue. Her husband is at the home of his mother, Mrs. Thomas Watson Cushing, 636 Highland avenue, Piedmont, where he went on the morning of April 7 of this year, following a "night out," according to the testimony of his wife. In accordance with the provisions of a property settlement effected out of court she will receive $100 a month alimony.

MET WIFE IN SOUTH.

Ghirardelli met his wife in Los Angeles as Mrs. Nina Sayman in 1910. She was then but 21 years of age. They hurried to Santa Cruz and were married, later making their home in Oakland. The marriage followed close upon the heels of a previous adventure in the field of love which Fate and his mother had caused to end disastrously to Ghirardelli. He had been infatuated with Marian Murray, a vaudeville actress, and is said to have been seriously considering marriage when his mother cut his monthly allowance down to $125.

"Why, that wouldn't pay the laundry bills," Miss Murray is said to have observed.

The society man's bruised heart was salved over by the pretty Mrs. Sayman. It was not long after marriage,

S. F. on Eve of Great Primary Election

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 27.—Tomorrow is primary day, the climax of the first phase of the municipal election. The closing hours of the campaign today are marked by intense interest in the outcome.

With a total registration far in excess of any previous figure and more than 60,000 San Francisco women voting for the first time for a mayoralty candidate, the situation baffles astute political prophets.

Confident claims of victory were forthcoming from most of the camps. On surface indications each of the three leading mayoralty candidates has a plausible basis for his claims. Large audiences and enthusiastic receptions have been the rule throughout the campaign. It is the unprecedented size of the great "silent vote" that wise politicians are reckoning with in declining to make positive predictions.

LAUNCH IS RUN DOWN IN NIGHT

Albert Everett Drowned When Steamer Hits Lighter Craft

Investigation of Accident Will Follow; Says Lights Burned

The launch Helen H, owned by Roy Clark, 3637 McGee street, was rammed by the steam schooner Graywood off the Oakland waterfront last night and Albert Everett, Clark's brother-in-law, was drowned. Everett was unable to swim, as he had lost one arm in an accident some years ago. He is survived by a widow and a stepson, both living at 3637 McGee street.

Captain Asplund, who was on the bridge of the Graywood when she struck the launch amidship, told the police that he had heard four sharp whistles just before the accident, but had seen no lights. Clark declares that he had five lights burning when he was struck and that he was lying directly in the path of the steamer, his engines stopped.

"Everett leaped from the deck of the launch at the same time I did," said Clark. "I saw him go down, but did not see him come up again. I think he must have been taken down by the water suction."

The body of Everett has not been recovered. Watchers were out along the bay shore this morning searching for the remains.

The accident occurred shortly before 10 o'clock last night off the West Oakland shipyards of the Southern Pacific Company. The Graywood was proceeding easterly under full steam when the launch was run down. Both Captain Asplund and First Mate A. Anderson were on the bridge at the time. Neither saw any lights, but both heard the whistle.

BOATS TO RESCUE.

The schooner was stopped and boats sent out to rescue the crew of the launch. They succeeded in picking up Clark after he had been in the water for 27 minutes. He was almost exhausted and suffering from the extreme cold.

The Graywood proceeded to the Howard wharf at the foot of Jefferson street and Clark was taken to the Receiving hospital, where he was revived.

The accident will be made the subject, it is understood, of an official investigation.

J. D. Jr., Confers With Fuel Co. Officials

By Associated Press.

DENVER, Sept. 27. — John D. Rockefeller Jr. conferred today with officers of the Colorado Fuel and Iron Company. While the object of the conference was not disclosed, it was generally believed that matters investigated by Rockefeller during his tour of inspection of company properties last week were discussed.

Rockefeller, who spent Sunday quietly at the ranch of J. F. Welborn, president of the company, returned to Denver early today.

DALLAS, Tex., Sept. 27.—Charles E. Schaff, president of the Missouri, Kansas and Texas railway system, was appointed receiver for the Missouri, Kansas and Texas railroad of Texas by Judge Meek in the District Court here this afternoon. The receivership suit was filed by attorneys on behalf of D. B. Hussey, who styles himself a general creditor of the company, acting for himself and others.

GREAT BATTLES ON IN WESTERN FRONT

Allies Claim Advance in Past Two Days More Than in Whole Year

AIRMEN BOMBARDING BRUGES

Infantry Charges Complete the Work Started by the Big Guns

By Associated Press.

LONDON, Sept. 27.—In two days the French and British have gained greater results than in the preceding twelve months of fighting since the battle of the Marne. With upward of 20,000 German prisoners in their hands and something like thirty guns, without counting machine guns, and with a formidable breach in the German line the allies apparently have their long expected offensive movement well under way. The advance has been general and its effect is emphasized by a substantial gain on the eastern front for the Russians.

Petrograd states that the army of General Ivanoff has won a striking victory over the Germans and Austrians in the southeastern theater, where 1000 prisoners are said to have been taken.

The Belgians also, are taking a prominent part in the new movement. Their official announcement reports the capture of a German post on the right bank of the Yser with the consequent evacuation by the Germans of adjoining trenches.

TO CAUSE CHANGES.

It is believed in London that the new move in the west will again bring the Germans face to face with the necessity of making a choice between the two fronts, as was the case earlier in the war. Military writers point out that the Russians are now holding the Austrians and Germans on a front of 700 miles, while the presence of nearly 2,000,000 strongly intrenched Germans has failed to prevent an advance in France. This, they say, must increase the perplexities of the German general staff and react immediately on any plans which may have been formed for new attacks in the south or southeast.

The feeling of optimism in London is enhanced by the political effect with the successes of the allies appear to have had on the Balkan states. Dispatches from Sofia indicate that Bulgarian diplomats are eager to convince the allies that mobilization of the army was not prompted by hostile motives.

The latest official notes from Petrograd is interpreted here as showing that the Russians are distinctly in a better position. This seems to be true even in the region of Dvinsk, where Field Marshal von Hindenburg has concentrated his efforts, perhaps at the expense of the southern front. The German attack now seems to be slackening.

VICTORIES ARE CLAIMED BY GERMANS

By Associated Press.

BERLIN, Sept. 27, via London, 6:02 p. m.—The German war office announced today that the new offensive movement in the neighborhood of Lille, Northern France, had been brought to a standstill by fierce German counter attacks.

The British attack in other sectors also is said to have broken down with very heavy losses to the attacking forces. The war office states, however, that the French offensive has made further progress between Rheims and the Argonne.

By Associated Press.

BERLIN, Sept. 27.—(By wireless to Tuckertown.)—One British warship was sunk and two others were damaged in the attack by a British squadron on the German batteries along the Belgian coast, especially at Zeebrugge, simultaneously with the issuance of the new allied offensive movement on land, according to the German official statement of September 26th. After these losses the British ships withdrew.

The foregoing claim of losses inflicted upon the British naval forces attacking the Belgian coast was omitted from the German official statement as cabled through London yesterday, doubtless having been struck out by the censor.

The official statement enumerates the capture of more than 5000 French and British prisoners and a number of machine guns in the land fighting at various points along the front.

The passages in the official statement which refer to these incidents of the fighting are as follows:

"British ships attacked the German coast batteries, especially at Zeebrugge. The attack failed and after one ship had been sunk and two others were damaged the ships withdrew.

On the Ypres front the enemy suffered heavy losses and attained no advantage. Two British officers and 100 men were captured and six machine guns were taken.

"The Germans voluntarily evacuated the ruins of the former village of Souchez. Here 1200 men were taken prisoners, including one English brigade commander and several officers, and ten machine guns were captured.

"North of Mourmelon Le Grande and close to the western Argonne more than 3750 French, of whom thirty-nine were officers, were taken prisoners."

AIRCRAFT ATTACK BRUGES

By Associated Press.

AMSTERDAM, via London, Sept. 27, 3 p. m.—Airmen of the entente allies have again bombarded Bruges, Belgium. The sudden cessation of the flow of gas at Sluis in Zeeland (on the Belgian frontier), which is supplied from Bruges, leads to the suspicion here that bombs from aircraft struck the gas works.

INFANTRY WINS THE FIELD

By Associated Press.

PARIS, Sept. 27.—Reports from the front say that only 20 minutes were required for the French infantry to complete the victory prepared for by 60 hours of violent shelling, and overrun the first line of the German trenches north of Perthes, in Champagne. While awaiting the moment for the attack the French soldiers rested behind their lines, joking and putting their arms in perfect order.

The bright glow from the slow burning illuminating rockets and the glare of exploding projectiles lighted up the entire zone of action during two nights.

"After a few hours of intense fire, our hopes that our batteries were dominating the situation were transformed to certain conviction," says a wounded officer who took part in the battle. "The moment for the attack was set for for dawn. When the charge was sounded whole battalions, reinforced by reserves, bounded forward. The rush was so impetuous that the Germans still alive and unwounded in the battered rocks seemed dazed and unable to resist. They were disarmed and pushed back for our reserves to pick up while the attacking line went on.

"There was little or no musketry. The bayonet did most of the work. The proportion of dead to wounded and prisoners were large. What was left of entire companies threw up their hands at the sight of deadly execution of the Zouaves."

The general impression of wounded men brought from the field is that the affair of Perthes is only a beginning of the French effort.

Parisians received news of the victory soberly. The newspapers issued unusually large editions and official bulletins were read from the stages of theaters last night, the orchestras playing the "Marseillaise." There were no other public demonstrations.

A report was spread that many trains carrying wounded soldiers were arriving outside Paris, but later it was learned that these trains were filled with German prisoners.

CRISIS NEARS IN CARMEN'S TROUBLE

Committee May Submit Arbitration Articles if Ignored

Grievance Body Expects Action Today by R. R. Officials

Relations between the members of the Carmen's Union and the San Francisco-Oakland Terminal Railways are rapidly nearing a crisis. The grievance committee is this afternoon awaiting an opportunity to hold a meeting with the company heads, determined that if it is not granted articles of arbitration will be summarily submitted, to be followed shortly by another special vote on a general walkout if this matter is also refused by the corporation.

The carmen today expressed themselves as dissatisfied with the letter from President G. K. Weeks, received last Saturday, in which their request for a conference was denied, although the corporation head said that the records in the case at issue were open to the inspection of the grievance committee members.

These records have been examined by the car men, who declare that they are not satisfied that James A. Knowles and John Gunnerson, the deckhands over whose discharge the present trouble is brewing, were justifiably given their releases.

A. H. Burt, of Salt Lake City, a member of the general executive committee of the Amalgamated Association of Street and Electric Railway Employes of America, is still in the city. He is waiting with the grievance committeemen and Gunnerson and Knowles for further word from the corporation officers. This has not been received as yet, although B. F. Bowbeer, local representative of the carmen's international body, has telephoned to Weeks' office a number of times. He has been told each time that Weeks was not in his office.

"We will wait a little longer," Bowbeer said. "I think that we have shown unusual patience in this matter. We are going to give the company officials every opportunity to treat us fairly. If we do not get some kind of action this afternoon the matter of arbitration will be submitted by us, as provided in our agreement with the corporation."

TWO KILLED IN AUTOMOBILE CRASHES

ONEONTA, N. Y., Sept. 27.—Willard B. Huntington of Los Angeles, a nephew of the late Collis P. Huntington and brother of Henry E. Huntington, railroad financier, was killed today in a motor car accident near Otego. In turning out to pass a team, his car plunged through a fence and down a fifty-foot embankment. Mr. Huntington was born in this city.

Eleven Miners Are Entombed by Rock

By Associated Press.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., Sept. 27.—Eleven mine workers were entombed today at Coaldale Colliery of the Lehigh Coal and Navigation Company at Coaldale, as the result of fall of rock. The fall was caused by a heavy blast and extends for fully 300 feet, blocking the single passage leading to the chamber in which the men were at work.

Hope of reaching any of the men alive has been given up.

EXPLOSION KILLS 15; HURTS 50

Carload of Gasoline Ignites and Blows Up, Wrecking Town

Ardmore, Okla., Scene of Disaster and Death

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Sept. 27.—Fifteen persons were killed and fifty others were injured when a carload of gasoline exploded at Ardmore, Oklahoma, according to a report received here by the local manager of a telephone company. The town is burning.

The Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe station at Ardmore was destroyed by the explosion, according to a report here over railroad wires. It was stated every person in the station was killed.

Communication with Ardmore was severed while the report of the damage was being telephoned to Kansas City. The gigantic explosion wrecked many buildings and the flaming gasoline was hurled in every direction. Scores of fires immediately broke out.

Protocol Is Signed to Cede Land to Turkey

By Associated Press.

SOFIA, via London, Sept. 27.—The protocol providing for the handing over of territory ceded by Turkey to Bulgaria, in virtue of the Turco-Bulgarian agreement, was signed by Turkish and Bulgarian delegates at Demotika, twenty miles south of the Turkish fortress of Adrianople, yesterday, according to the semi-official Bulgarian newspaper Narodni Prava.

The agreement by which Turkey ceded to Bulgaria the Turkish portion of the Dedeaghatch railway is reported to have been reached July 22. The protocol is understood to transfer to Bulgaria all Turkish territory west of the Mariiza river.

Samuel Ferguson, Colonizer, Is Dead

BERKELEY, Sept. 27.—Samuel W. Ferguson, former colonization agent of the Southern Pacific, who opened up the Imperial valley and induced Collis P. Huntington to develop that territory, died early today at his home, 2345 Telegraph avenue, a victim of cancer.

Born in Marshaltown, Ia., in 1859, Ferguson came to California in 1885 for the Southern Pacific, and was responsible for the development of many parts of the state. With others he opened up Mill Valley. He was commissioner from California to the Chicago Exposition. He is survived by a daughter, Dr. E. Bertella, and two sons, Paul E. Ferguson of Sacramento and Garth W. Ferguson of San Francisco.

Police Chief Dies of Mysterious Poison

By Associated Press.

PANA, Ill., Sept. 27.—Chief of Police Williams Reitz of this city died last night under mysterious circumstances, his body filled with a poison upon the nature of which local physicians disagree.

Since his appointment last May Chief Reitz had waged a fight on bootleggers.

Wednesday the chief was a witness in a bootlegging case at Taylorville, Ill. Soon after he returned to Pana, his whole body became covered with eruptions which physicians said was poison.

Grief Causes Woman to Commit Suicide

By Associated Press.

SACRAMENTO, Sept. 27.—Mrs. Emma S. Woodson, widow of the late J. A. Woodson, a pioneer newspaperman of San Francisco and this city, committed suicide last night by hanging herself with towels to the bedpost at her home. Her body was found this morning. Grief over the death of her husband and distress at leaving her home, which she was to have sold today, are believed to have caused her to end her life.

Premier and King Hold Long Conference

By Associated Press.

SOFIA, Sept. 27.—Premier Radoslavoff, it has been learned, spent the entire day yesterday with King Ferdinand at the summer palace at Vrana. The premier returned to Sofia today.

Mobilization of the Bulgarian army is proceeding in an admirable manner. It is expected the army will be ready to take the field in a few days, but it is evident that mobilization is being carried out in no great hurry.

ABOLISH JOB OF REVENUE EXPERT

An ordinance abolishing the position of Revenue Expert C. Stuart MacMullen, employed during the past two months at a salary of $225 a month, was given first and second reading today and passed to print on motion of the council.

Commissioner Baccus has been carrying around for the past two weeks a draft of an ordinance abolishing MacMullen's position, but deferred presenting it to the council as he was unable to be sure that Commissioner F. F. Jackson would vote with him and Commissioner Anderson to abolish the job.

Baccus apparently had been given some sort of intimation that Jackson would vote in favor of dispensing with MacMullen, as he placed the ordinance in the hands of the city clerk to be read today. But Commissioner Baccus was about ten minutes late. Commissioner W. H. Edwards had forestalled him with a similar ordinance and it was the one presented by Edwards that was read in council.

"I see you beat me to it," said Baccus, with a grin.

"Mr. MacMullen did not wish to remain in the service of the city," explained Mayor Davie. "Why, he did not even apply to the civil service board to take the examination."

"He has not been of any use to the city," returned Baccus. "He has been drawing his salary for walking around the corridors of the City Hall and sitting in your office."

"That is a matter of opinion," returned the mayor, shortly.

The council revoked the license of McCaffery & McCaffery, a saloon at the corner of Fifty-ninth and College avenue, by unanimous vote. The matter has been under controversy since last June and has been transferred from the council to the court and from the court back to the council again. The commissioners took action today after listening to an hour-long argument between Attorney John Tolan for the saloon and Judge Jesse Dunn, representing the neighbors who had petitioned for the removal of the saloon.

LENGTHY RESOLUTION.

The council listened long and patiently to the attorneys and then passed a lengthy resolution which had been drawn up before the argument commenced, in which their reasons for disagreeing with the attorneys was given in detail. Deputy City Attorney O'Brien stated that there were 346 people within the district included in the great register. There had been 53 removals, 15 improper registrations and 3 deaths, making a reduction of 71. A majority of 275 remaining is 138. There had been filed 175 signatures to the petition for the revocation of the license.

Deducting the 12 withdrawals and also 15 improper registrations, 147 names were left on the petition for removal, or nine more than the necessary majority of 138.

Commissioner Baccus introduced an ordinance appropriating $600 to assist the Baby Hospital Association, the money to be taken from Mayor Davie's contingency fund. The mayor recommended that the ordinance be referred to the city attorney for an opinion as to whether it would be legal to give this money.

"I know what the city attorney's opinion will be," said Baccus. "I know what will happen to it."

"The city attorney has advised that we have no right to give this money," said Commissioner Edwards.

"Yes, but he said you had the right to appropriate and you did appropriate $1500 for a dance on Clay street," answered Baccus.

"I will give $100 myself," said Mayor Davie, "if you will, Mr. Baccus."

"I can't afford it," answered Baccus; "I haven't got that much."

The matter was referred to the city attorney's office for a report tomorrow.

The request for permission to conduct a street carnival on San Pablo avenue at Twenty-seventh street, October 18 to 23, was presented by the San Pablo Improvement Association. It will be acted upon tomorrow.

Commissioner Edwards said that the last carnival on Seventh street had been objectionable, and he wanted to know more about this one.

Joel Hayes filed a communication asking the council to adopt the Rees harbor plan.

REJECT MEYERS' CLAIM.

The claim of Romaine W. Meyers for $125 for engineering service in checking extra material and labor on the John G. Sutton Co. city hall contract, was rejected today by City Auditor I. H. Clay. Clay stated that he had already allowed 5 per cent to H. C. Meyer, Jr., of New York city, and 6 per cent to Palmer, Hornbostel & Jones, city hall architects, on this contract, making 11 per cent, or $225.32 on the original contract of $2252.15. He intimated that he thought that was enough.

The following liquor licenses were granted:

G. B. Raffetto and C. B. Rafetto, 900 Seventh street, successors to Oliva & Rafetto, same address, saloon and family liquor store.

W. R. Wemmer and Hiram Christ, 418 Eleventh street, successors to W. R. Wemmer and W. J. Richter, same address, restaurant with bar.

Wagner Distributing Co., 313 Franklin street, successor to C. F. Wagner, same address, wholesale liquor establishment. Change in style of name.

SEEKING TOURIST TRAVEL

Supervisors Vote to Join Move

Alameda county will enter for another year in the membership of the Central California Tourist Association. This was decided this morning by the board of supervisors, when that body passed a resolution setting forth that, if the other counties in the membership list agree to join again this county will contribute four-tenths of one per cent of its assessed valuation to the work. This is the same agreement as that signed last year, and under which work was done by the association in this county.

County employees will not be paid until the fifth of this month, through the refusal of the auditor to approve any payroll approved by the board until actual service of employees is performed. This means that Thursday's meeting, being on the 30th of the month, cannot pass the warrants. Monday next will be the 4th of October, and the warrants will be approved then. The payroll will be issued on the fifth.

The election officers for the coming state election and the list of polling places were approved at this morning's meeting, and word was received that the Alameda county booklets for the Exposition have been finished and are ready for distribution. Authorization was granted the county clerk to employ five extra clerks to go over the recall petitions for the Alameda County Water District directors in Washington Township. It was also decided that the withdrawals filed last week are legal withdrawals and can be accepted.

AWARDED PAYMENT.

The Hutchinson Company was awarded the contract, on unit prices, for the grading of the Mission San Jose Warm Springs road. P. H. Hoare was awarded $1050 part payment on the Hayward Dublin road.

Invitation to the county to be represented at the California Purchasing Agents' convention, to be held at San Diego, was received and filed.

SUBJECT TO RECALL.

That the water district directors of Washington district are subject to recall under State law was reported by Assistant District Attorney Manley Clark. Petitions for a recall had been filed some time ago and later a number of withdrawals, alleging misrepresentation on the part of the promoters of the [illegible] were filed.

Withdrawals can be made up to the time of action by the county clerk on the petitions, he said. The report was filed.

Cancellation of sale on the property of E. Marshall, asked by the tax collector, was ordered.

ROUTINE MATTERS.

Petition, filed by A. Rogers, for the extension of Williams street for a public highway, was received. Frank Williams, E. J. Mullen and the county surveyor.

Margaret Kigler, Mc Eden and P. Goularte, Decoto, were granted renewals of liquor licenses.

Geo McClellan was named assistant gardener at the Hall of Records.

On recommendation of Dr. C. A. Wills, M. S. Thorn was made dipatheria nurse. F. Mills, T. B. Selfer, J. Hayes, grave digger, and M. Murray, cook, at the County Infirmary.

A map of Excelsior tract filed by the Realty syndicate with a bond, was accepted as official.

E. J. Tyson, assistant probation officer, asked permission to list his name in the Oakland telephone directory under the probation office number. Another man by the same name complained of getting calls intended for him, the officer living in Niles and not now being in the telephone directory of Oakland. The matter was referred to the committee of the whole.

TO AID TOURIST WORK.

Request from the Tourist association that the county again come into its fold as last year, was made by E. D. Moore, managing director of the organization. With him were J. E. Caine of the Oakland Commercial club and F. T. Robson, W. A. Woolsey and Wells Drury of Berkeley.

The proposition was the same as last year's, that the county's contribution would not be asked unless the rest of the nine counties of the organization come in.

"Much of this money is spent here," said Caine. "And three of the officials of the association live here."

Nine thousand six hundred and eighty dollars was asked of this county, San Francisco to pay about $20,000 and San Mateo, Marin, Santa Cruz and other counties to be in the organization. All get equal representation, each county being asked to pay in four-tenths of one pear cent on its valuation. Monterey, Napa, Solano and San Benito counties, said Moore, have already taken action.

There are funds on hand now to operate the association until the end of the exposition.

LEAGUE DEMANDS SHIFT PROGRAM

Commissioner Jackson Refuses Support; Plans to Be Kept Secret.

Members of the Taxpayers' League renewed their effort today to induce Commissioner F. F. Jackson to lend his vote to the transfer of Commissioner W. H. Edwards to the department of streets in order that he might "clean up" Commissioner W. J. Baccus' office. Dr. Jackson again declared that he could not agree to the plan, as he considered it a violation of the basic principles of the commission form of government.

The delegates left the office of the commissioner greatly irritated by the stand taken by Jackson.

W. B. Simmons, a member of the committee which visited Commissioner Jackson, asked that the newspapermen be excluded from the conference as it was desired to keep the political maneuvers of the league secret.

Dr. Jackson stated that he had no objection to the press, but acceded to the request. Among those who waited upon Dr. Jackson were W. B. Simmons, George Hall, Samuel Reynolds, George Crosby, Dr. Taylor and Messrs. Bailey, Hutchinson, Manning, Reed and Konigeberg.

Los Angeles, one house; insurance collected, $1400.

Pasadena, one cottage; insurance collected, $250.

Calexico, one house; failed to burn.

In 1914, Ocean Beach, Cal., two houses; insurance collected, $2000.

In 1915, Oakland, house at 4100 Thirty-ninth avenue; insurance collected, $700.

According to Captain Petersen, Burright never worked with any of the men in jail in Portland except Currier.

POLICE OBTAIN EVIDENCE.

The evidence which led to the arrest of Burright and his wife and the disclosure of the operations of the arson syndicate was obtained by the Oakland police as a result of a suggestion made by Inspector William Kyle. Kyle had investigated the charge of embezzlement made against Burright and his wife last May by the Jackson Furniture Company, and found traces in San Jose of what appeared to him to be an incendiary fire similar to a fire in Oakland. The police gathered photographs of Burright and his wife and Irving Barnaman, Mrs. Burright's brother, and of James N. Snyder and his wife, who are also declared to be members of the gang. They placed these photographs in a circular, the pictures being numbered from one to five and sent out 12,000 copies of the circular to insurance adjusters and agents in California, Washington, Oregon, Nevada and Arizona.

"Do you know any of these people? Have you ever done business with them in connection with insurance? Notify this office immediately at our expense," the circular read.

Within a short time answers began to come in. When the police had gathered information concerning the adjustment of a dozen or more fires in which the Burrights and Snyder and his wife are believed to be connected, they put them on the grill and obtained a confession which has just been revealed.

OVER $40,000 COLLECTED.

The arsons committed by this gang are the greatest in the amounts collected so far as the total goes, in the history of the Pacific Coast police work, according to Captain Petersen. Over $40,000 has been collected in the past six years. Until Kyle began to suspect the two Burrights, who were the brains of the syndicate, according to Petersen, none of the members was suspected of arson, and none was arrested. They continued their operations without being molested in any way. According to the police, there are about 15 members of the gang. Burright and his wife have operated in Oakland alone for some time, but were formerly, the police say, assisted by Snyder and Mrs. Snyder. In Southern California a gang of six have been at work, and arrests are expected today for crimes in the southern part of the state. There are five indictments out in Portland, Ore.

The insurance adjusters were easy people to deal with, according to Burright.

"They did not want to dirty their hands by going into the burned buildings," said Burright. "In all but two instances we collected the full amount of our insurance. I studied the insurance districts so that we would not have to do business with the same adjuster on two fires."

Burright built several houses for arson purposes and drew his plans so that they would burn easily, arranging for large staircases from story to story to make possible a good draught. He also selected places which were far from fire hydrants or streets which contained the high-pressure system.

OFFICIAL WAR STATEMENTS

RUSSIAN

By Associated Press.

PETROGRAD, via London, Sept. 27.—The following official statement was issued today at the headquarters of the general staff.

"The situation was somewhat quieter along the Dvinsk front. According to the statement of prisoners the Germans suffered severe losses in the recent encounters and attacks which we repulsed. After a fight yesterday for the possession of the village of Drisviaty, on the lake of the same name, the Germans were driven from the village.

"In the Vilyia region above Vileika, desperate actions continue. We captured the village of Resterka. The Germans delivered a series of attacks near Vileika. All the attacks were repulsed. In the district northwest of Vileika our troops carried by a bayonet charge the fortified village of Ostroff and recaptured the village of Ghirty.

"On the Smorgon front and south of that town the fighting continues. In the region of Lazdouny east of the village of Ydie, the enemy developed a violent fire with heavy artillery. Our troops evacuated the village.

"With the bayonet we crushed the desperate resistance of the Germans near the village of Podgurie, east of Novo Grodek, taking prisoner four officers and 91 men. An extremely hot engagement was fought all day yesterday near the farm of Marissene, also east of Novo Grodek, the trenches constantly changing hands. South of this farm, as the result of repeated attacks, the enemy was driven from his trenches near the village Old Koltchitzy. We took prisoner here about 600 Germans and captured several machine guns, two provision columns, artillery wagons and ammunition. Still further to the south the village of Podlugie also fell into our hands after a bloody bayonet charge.

"On the Strument river we drove back across the stream the Germans who abandoned numerous wounded and a large quantity of munitions and burned the bridge near Staticheff.

"There were no incidents of note south of Pinsk, on the front south of the Pripet or in the Galician theater."

By Associated Press.

PARIS, Sept. 27, 2:30 a. m.—The text of the communication follows:

"In the Artois district we have maintained our positions.

"To the east of Souchez our advance, previously reported as having reached the destroyed telegraph line to the north of Thelus, has not as a matter of fact passed the orchards of La Folie and the highway from Arras to Lille. This advance, however, has been at all points maintained.

"Along the front to the south of the River Somme there has been fighting with bombs and torpedoes in the vicinity of Andrechy. Our artillery has vigorously counter attacked the batteries of the enemy which were cannonading our positions at Quennevieres.

"In the Champagne district the fighting has been going on with tenacity along all the front. We have occupied at several places, notably at Trou Bricot, to the north of the Wacques Farm, several positions in the rear of our new lines, which certain detachments of the enemy had been able to maintain themselves.

"The previous statement that we had captured 200 German officers is erroneous; we have taken prisoner 300 German officers in the Champagne district.

"Between the Meuse and the Moselle and in the Lorraine district there has been severe artillery fighting on both sides.

"A violent storm in the Vosges has for the moment suspended all operations in this district."

"We averaged three nights a week at the road houses," Mrs. Ghirardelli testified. "There my husband drank very much helped to entertain any and all guests and played the dunce with the entertainers. WORKS SAYS TAFT MADE BAD "BULL"

Senator Takes Issue With Former President on Non-Partisan Address.

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 27.—John D. Works, Republican, and senior United States Senator from California, issued a statement here tonight criticising a a speech made here September 18 by former President William Howard Taft. He said it was poor politics, and took issue with part of its subject matter, but agreed with Taft in the position that the non-partisan state election law was not a good one.

Works praised Taft highly, but added that "with all the judge's admirable qualities he has never been looked upon by his best and most loyal friends as a wise politician. A greater political mistake could not have been made than the delivery of such a speech in this state at this time."

It came, he said, when men who believe in the fundamental principles of the Republican party are trying to bring together other men in and out of the party with whom they have differed, to oppose the Democrats, and "it could have no other effect than to defeat this most desirable object," although it might be well enough in Connecticut.

Works held that Taft was in error in speaking against the direct primary, and said that there was room for "honest difference of opinion" about the initiative and referendum, the principle of which he held to be right.

Most of Country Bathed in Rain

California Left Out in General Shower

The entire United States, with the exception of California and the southern country, has received a generous rain during the 24 hours ending at 5 o'clock this morning. There was scarcely a state in the union which did not come in for a downpour.

Showers fell in the mountains of California, Arizona and Texas and generously in Nevada, Oregon, Washington and eastward to the Atlantic slope. Only the Pacific Coast cities and the valleys of the south escaped the precipitation. The southwest wind and low overhanging clouds caused the weather bureau on Saturday night to predict the possibility of showers.

In California and in the southern states, however, only the mountain regions were touched, but in the remainder of the country the rain was quite heavy for this season of the year.

AUSTRIA WILLING TO RECALL DUMBA

WASHINGTON, Sept. 27.—Austria has informally notified Ambassador Penfield that it will recall Dr. Dumba, the Austrian ambassador to the United States, as requested by President Wilson.

Mr. Penfield was assured that the wishes of the United States would be complied with, and that a formal note on the subject would be handed to him soon. Until the formal expression is in the hands of State Department officials, they cannot act upon the ambassador's request for conduct. Dr. Dumba had engaged passage on the steamship Rotterdam, due to sail September 29, but it is not known whether arrangements can be made in time for him to leave on that date.

COASTWISE FLEET SOLD, IS REPORT

Carrier Line Between S. F. and Seattle Changes Hands; Rumor.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 27.—The sale of the Pacific Coast Steamship Company's fleet of five steamers, the most important carriers between here and Seattle, is persistently rumored along the waterfront today.

Reports which have been current for the last month, that one or more of the ships had been sold, were to the effect that the entire fleet has been bought by the New York and Cuba Mail Steamship Company, familiarly known as the Ward Line.

The ships said to be affected are the Congress, Governor, President, Umatilla and City of Puebla.

Simultaneous with the report of the sale comes a rumor freely discussed by men in a position to know that an attempt soon will be made by a combine of stockholders to gain control of the company from the New York and Boston capitalists who now control it.

At the local offices of the company there has been no confirmation. At Seattle, although a formal denial was made last week, it is said officially the deal is all but completed.

The Pacific Coast Company is the greatest passenger carrier between here and the north. It has been operating this summer under a schedule providing a sailing a day from this city. It is the first company ever to try this service and the success met was marked. For several months the Pacific Coast fleet has been running with every berth full and the holds of the steamers crammed with cargo.

L'HEUREAUX TO BE AIDE TO SNEDIGAR

Deputy County Clerk Will Seek Place as Assistant in Probation Office.

With the probable succession of Ollie F. Snedigar to the head of the probation office, in the place of Christopher Ruess, who is to leave next month, William J. L'Heureux, deputy county clerk and well known athlete, will be a candidate for Snedigar's place as chief assistant probation officer in charge of the boys. Snedigar has held this office for five years, and, according to probation office attaches, is practically certain of the appointment as probation officer.

L'Heureux, who is better known as "Fat Larue," is noted as an athlete, and has appeared in several amateur boxing exhibitions at the Olympic Club.

"It is largely on my athletic record," he said, "that I base my claims of fitness for the office. Boys look up to athletes and large men, and heed their advice, when the small man would fail to impress them. Snedigar found this so. He was a famous athlete. I believe I can be successful in the work. Furthermore I want an office that is out of politics, like the probation office place. I honestly believe I can do these boys some good, and I think I will be a success.

L'Heureux denied the report, circulated about the courthouse that he was seeking the position of Probation officer.

"Some one misunderstood," he declared. "I want the assistant's position that Mr. Snedigar is to vacate."

The charges filed against White are declared to be unfounded by the dismissed employe. White has announced his intention of going before the civil service board to demand re-instatement.

DESCRIBES DEATH AS GRAVE ERROR

Christian Scientist Tells Large Throng the Tenets of His Belief.

A large audience greeted Prof. Hermann S. Hering Sunday afternoon at the Municipal Auditorium where he delivered a lecture on Christian Science under the auspices of the Fourth Church of Christ, Scientist, of Oakland.

The speaker who is a member of the Board of Lectureship of the First Church of Christ, Science, in Boston, Mass., was introduced by Mrs. Ada V. H. Smith, second reader of Fourth Church. Mr. Hering said in part:

"There is no question of such general interest to mankind as the one of healing. The universal demand and endeavor of humanity is for a larger measure of health and happiness than is today attained, and there is manifestly great need of some better means of healing than that in general use.

It is difficult for the materially minded to see how physical results can be attained through spiritual means. The teaching of the schools regarding the nature of matter produces such a materially biased consciousness that the nature of spiritual existence and spiritual power is very difficult to grasp.

"Idealistic philosophy and psychology teach that material objects are but objectified mental impressions or concepts and not exterior substantive entities.

"The universe created and constantly sustained by God must be like Him for like produces like, therefore the real universe is not finite or dimensional but infinite, not destructible but indestructible, not material but spiritual.

"Perfect God, perfect man, perfect being, is the basis of all Christian Science teaching, analysis, and practise. This is the standard by which Christian Science measures and tests all human phenomena and experiences in order to determine their true value.

DEATH AN ERROR.

"Disease, sin, death, all discords, are therefore to be classed as errors of mortal consciousness, as mesmeric, illusory mental conditions. On this basis they can be corrected with Truth, while they cannot be corrected so long as they are classed as either physical or mental realities. Even according to psychology and philosophy they are but objectified sense impressions.

"When an ill or sin is healed in Christian Science, it is not the thought of the Christian Scientist which does the healing but the spiritual truth which he knows and applies to the human error.

"The fact that Christian Scientists do not yet do all the wonderful works Jesus did is a cause for regret but not for discouragement or criticism. We are glad that Jesus' work proved Christian Science to be true, and that Mrs. Eddy rediscovered the Science of Christian healing and has given it to the world. This healing is possible in proportion to our spirituality."

TURK ATROCITIES 'PURE INVENTIONS'

Reports of Armenian Extermination Denied in Letter by Count von Bernstorff.

By Associated Press.

BOSTON, Mass., Sept. 27.—The German ambassador, Count von Bernstorff, in a letter made public here today, declared that reports concerning alleged atrocities in the Ottoman empire, were "pure inventions." The ambassador's letter, written under date of September 23 and addressed to Miram Sevasly of this city, chairman of the executive committee of the National Defense Union of America, who asked for a definite statement, was as follows:

"In reply to your letter I beg to inform you that according to recent official and authentic reports received by the German government and transmitted by this embassy to the government of the United States, the alleged atrocities committed in the Ottoman Empire appear to be pure inventions.

"Without doubting the good faith of the Catholicos I beg, however, to call your attention to the fact that His Holiness is writing under pressure of the Russian censure. Yours very Truly,

"J. BERNSTORFF."

The reference to the Catholicos, or primate of the Armenian Church, was based on a report recently published, in which he declared that the extermination of the Armenian race throughout Turkey was being carried on under official direction by an organized system of pillage, deportations, wholesale executions and massacres.

SUES CITY FOR INJURY TO FOOT IN AUDITORIUM

Alleging that she was confined to her bed for thirty days as the result of an attack of tetanus, or lock jaw, caused through an injury to her foot received when she stepped on a nail in her dressing room in the municipal auditorium on the night of April 30, pretty 17-year-old Gertrude M. Potter, one of the dancers who opened the public building, today filed suit against the city for $10,255 damages.

Miss Potter alleges in her suit that the dressing room was so illy-lighted that she could not see where she was stepping while making a change of costume between dances. She was one of the troupe of girls who danced in the figures staged by Loie Fuller.

LONG RIDE ON WATER WAGON BRINGS FORTUNE

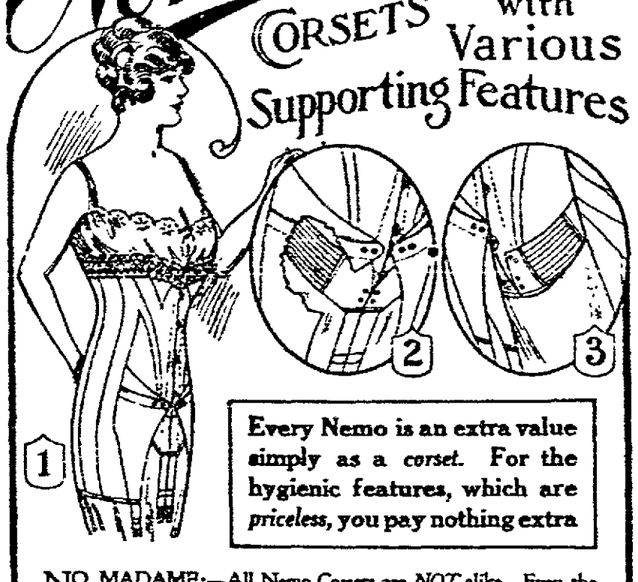
GRASS VALLEY, Sept. 27.—Strict sobriety and integrity won for William Meade of Smartsville the confidence of James O'Brien, wealthy miner and farmer and pioneer of the Smartsville section, whose death occurred a few weeks ago.

Early in life Meade was left without mother or father to direct his career. O'Brien took a liking to the boy, took him into his home and reared him. A warm friendship existed between the two. In the will of O'Brien just made public, a bequest of $6000 is made to Meade.

COMMITS SUICIDE.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 27.—Alfred Morgenson, a carpenter, 23 years old, residing at 2049 Mission street, committed suicide by cutting his throat with a razor this morning. His only explanation was contained in a note which read: "Father—There is no truth and only one hope."

Nemo Self-Reducing Corsets with Various Supporting Features



Every Nemo is an extra value simply as a corset. For the hygienic features, which are priceless, you pay nothing extra

NO, MADAME:—All Nemo Corsets are NOT alike. Even the Self-Reducing Corsets are not alike. There's a Nemo model especially made for every type of figure. Be sure you get the one that suits YOURS.

Consider the various Nemo supporting and reducing features, three of which are shown above, and note how they DIFFER:

No. 1 is the perfected Self-Reducing Strap, used in many Nemo models. This is attached (on the outside) at the hip section, and hooked to the front steel. Note the narrow re-enforced strip—this fits well down in the groin section, gives support, and, because of the gentle friction on the body with every movement, it gradually reduces the size and weight of the abdomen. This is the reducing feature in these two very popular models for women who require a moderate degree of abdominal support:

No. 322—with medium lines, for medium full figures
No. 326—with longer lines, for taller full figures } $3.50

No. 2 (above) shows the improved Nemo Relief Bands, used in Model 403 and in the new Models 402 and 405, in addition to the Self-Reducing Straps. These Bands take up a large, "spready" abdomen, support and reshape it, and reduce it permanently by the passive massage of the Bands and Straps. For many stout women these corsets are unequaled:

No. 402—for short stocky figures, small bust, medium hips, big abdomen
No. 403—for full figures of medium height, large bust, hips and abdomen
No. 405—for tall full figures, large bust, hips and abdomen } $4.00

No. 3 (above) shows the famous Lastikops Bandlet, in Nemo Nos. 522 and 523. The Self-Reducing Straps assist the broad incurved front steels and the wide semi-elastic bandlets to carry, support and reduce a heavy, pendulous abdomen with delightful comfort, and ward off most of women's worst ills. And how these corsets improve a fat woman's shape!

No. 522—for tall heavy figures
No. 523—for short heavy figures } $5.00

These are only three of the many DIFFERENT Nemo reducing devices. They are not alike. If one happens to be what your figure needs, you may be sure that the other two would prove uncomfortable and unsatisfactory. Get the RIGHT Nemo!

CAUTION: The supporting, reducing and auto-massage service of these corsets is due to the Nemo patented construction—the free play of the Bands and Straps against the body. Imitations are made with straps and bands of similar appearance, sewed on to the corset, and therefore IMMOVABLE. These, of course, have no supporting, reducing or auto-massage value, and only add to the weight and bulk of the corset. Look for the trade-mark—NEMO. That is your protection against useless imitations.

STRAY BULLET IS CLEW TO MURDER

Blood Stains and Woman's Spectacles Found by Searchers.

By Associated Press.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Sept. 27.—The finding of a bullet embedded in a tree and blood stains near where Mrs. Robert W. Mueller's glasses were found were considered important clews in the effort being made by officials to solve the mystery surrounding the death of Captain Robert W. Mueller and his wife at Puckaway lake, amid the ruins of their summer cottage last Friday night. Captain Mueller formerly was a Milwaukee banker and an officer in the Wisconsin National Guard.

District Attorney James L. Kelley of Princeton, who has been conducting an inquiry into the affair, expressed himself today as being of the opinion that Captain Mueller first killed his wife and then shot himself to death. This theory, however, is scoffed at by Dr. W. J. Cronyn and Alderman Robert Kempf, who also have been investigating the deaths.

The Mueller cottage had been burned and the bodies of Captain Mueller and his wife were found, scarcely touched by the flames, with their skulls crushed.

Resigning Pastor Bids Flock Dramatic Adieu

"You may get a preacher who is a better officer, a wider advertiser, a more magnetic pulpiteer—but you will never get one whose ideals range higher or who will make greater sacrifices for the work.

"New friends may enter your lives, but they cannot deprive us of what we have enjoyed together. Busybodies, like hawks that occasionally fly across our sky, may say things of me, harsh or untrue, and seek to sow seeds of discord where peace and love have reigned, but all that is best in you will repel them."

So said Rev. John E. Stuchell, yesterday, when, in a dramatic farewell to his congregation at the Piedmont interdenominational church, he bade old friends farewell and spoke his last words before leaving the church where for years he has served. Stuchell resigned, following the refusal of the church trustees to start work on the open-air church for which the pastor had worked for years. The church had sold Mombray Hall for a public school, and Stuchell asked that the proceeds be used to start the church. The trustees refused.

The pastor filed his resignation, stating that as the end of his long years of work seemed no nearer, he felt that he could do better elsewhere.

SCORES "BUSYBODIES."

In his farewell sermon he takes a covert slap at those who disagreed with him, referring to busybodies "who are like hawks that occasionally fly across the sky," and expressing the hope that the works of his enemies have no effect on his friends. He also urged that all who spoke against him make their words good before his departure or else forever maintain silence in the matter.

"On this occasion," he said, "the last on which I shall serve you in an official capacity, I am divided between the desire to say nothing and the feeling that I ought to say something. Silence leaves nothing to take back, but even silence may be misconstrued. On the whole, I venture to set down these few words as a middle course.

"For six years I have striven to establish certain ideals of Christian union and brotherhood which I feel to be of great value. Whatever their apparent success today, I feel sure that they will triumph at last, and I am glad to have been one of those on the mountain tops heralding the new era when division shall give place to concord and bigotry to affection.

"If I have not made my message of sweetness and light clear to you in all this time, it were vain to attempt to do it now. If it is plain, all that is best in you will fight for its ultimate victory. Sooner or later, we are all judged at our true worth. All that is false must perish, for all that is sinful the day of reckoning must come: but so, too, upon the path of the aspiring and the devout the light of noonday must ultimately break. Weeping may endure for a night, falsehood may gain a temporary success; but, sooner or later, 'hope garners its harvest and love comes into its own.

ASKS FORGIVENESS.

"If in any respect, I have grieved any, I pray that they will set it down to weakness of judgment, or to hastiness of spirit, not to intent of heart. If any feel that I owe them anything, whether of explanation, or of apology, or of money, let them call my attention to it before I depart, and it will be made good.

"If people have talked about me with appreciation, let them feel assured of my profound thanks; if they have said evil against me, I call on them to make it good while I am among them, or else hereafter forever hold their peace. With a clear conscience I fear naught that any can do or say. In situations that small men would have used to their own advantage, I have sought the good of others and the common weal. I have treated the children with fatherly affection, the women with chivalrous courtesy, the men with frankness and brotherhood. Anyone is free to publish to the world aught that I have said or written during these years. In most of the things upon which the heart of the world is set I am poor indeed, but my character I would not exchange for that of no man in this imperial state. Without this, I would feel bankrupt; with it I am free to face the world, and to defy the devil.

"You may get a preacher who is a better officer, a wider advertiser, a more magnetic pulpiteer, but you will never get one whose ideals range higher, who will make greater sacrifices for the work, who will love and believe in the gospel more, or who will have less to regret when the time comes for him to leave. Mine was a service of love, and I poured out my heart and brain without stint.

FORGETS DISAGREEMENTS.

"It were small in these closing moments to recall the things upon which we may have differed, or the transient misunderstandings into which our zeal may have betrayed us. Rather let me emphasize the things that enrich and ennoble. During these years you have taken me into your homes and confidence, and provided for me with unfailing generosity. Together we have pursued objects of the highest worth, and their charm has been enhanced because we have pursued them together.

"I have lived during this time like a child in a garden of wonder. The charm of the homes of Piedmont, the beauty of the gardens, the mystic silence of the canyons, the glory of the sunsets which God has painted on the skies opposite to us have held me spellbound. You may have other citizens who can do more for you, but none who can appreciate all this wealth of opportunity more.

"New friends may enter your lives, but they cannot deprive us of what we have enjoyed together. Busybodies, like hawks that occasionally fly across our sky, may say things of me, harsh or untrue, and seek to sow seeds of discord where peace and trust have reigned, but all that is best in you will repel them.

"It is a disappointment to me that our dream has not been realized, that, just as we saw the towers over the hills, they disappeared, but some day, under some other leadership, it may be realized, and then you will recall with a thrill that we have worked and prayed for it together; and you will be the first to declare that, whatever may have been lacking in this closing ministry, it was an essential part in the ultimate triumph; and, in the day when 'both he that soweth and he that reapeth shall rejoice together,' it will be a small matter who began, and who carried on, and who completed the work. This, with my character I can safely leave in the hands of those whose generosity I have tested in other respects.

"From my heart, I thank all for their kindly words and gracious ministries: for their patience, for their loyalty, for their faith. These have made the work less difficult in the performance, and they will be sweet in the retrospect.

"Whatever the future may hold, ununder God I have been permitted to lay the foundation upon which another is about to build. But let every man take heed how he buildeth thereon, for other foundation can no man lay than that that is laid, which is Jesus Christ.

"And now, brethren, I commend you to God, and to the word of His grace, which is able to build you up, and to give you an inheritance among all them that are sanctified."

Plan Medical Schools for Chinese Doctors

By Associated Press.

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—China has in prospect the most thoroughly scientific system of medical education in the world, if the plans of the China Medical Board of the Rockefeller Foundation, outlined in the third part of the annual report of the foundation, made public here today are realized. This conclusion is reached from the results of four months' observation of the needs of China by a commission composed of Harry Pratt Judson, president of the University of Chicago; Roger S. Greene, United States consul general at Hankow, and Francis W. Peabody of the Harvard Medical School.

Would Sell Stolen Watch to Owner

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 27.—Jean Bagger of 134 Folsom street was held up and robbed by two men on Saturday, losing a valued gold watch and chain. This morning he was surprised when a man appeared at his front door and offered for a small consideration to sell him back his own timepiece. He hesitated and kept the stranger waiting while he summoned a police officer. The man, John Henderson, was taken into custody. He declared that he had been given the watch by a cripple who was even then hiding in a vacant lot nearby. Bagger remembered that one of the robbers who attacked him had a leg off and a few moments later identified James Burke, who was pointed out by Hendrickson. Both men were arrested. Hendrickson was charged with receiving stolen property and Burke with robbery.

FAIR MAIDS WILL SELL KISSES FOR CHARITY

Kisses for charity will be sold this week by a bevy of Oakland's young society girls, who will take part in the big musical play, "The College Hero," which will be given at the municipal auditorium opera house on Monday, Wednesday and Friday evenings, October 4, 6 and 8. To arouse interest in this production, for which 500 young people have been rehearsing for the last month, these kisses, which are a confection, the recipe of which is the secret of the girls who will sell them, will be sold in the candy stores next Saturday, which has been set aside as "College Hero" day.

Among the maids who will sell these kisses are: Miss Lois Shirey, Miss Lydia G. Fogg, Miss Dorothy Cawston, Miss Vira Bernhard, Miss Gladys Dredge, Miss Erla Cooley, Miss Marion Lyman, Miss Marian Cundy, Miss Agnes Horton and Miss Bernice Farla.

The play will be the most elaborate amateur production ever given in Oakland. The best talent in the bay cities will be seen, including thespians, singers and dancers.

TRACE S. O. S. CALL.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 27.—Federal authorities are to make a rigid investigation as to where the S. O. S. calls came from Saturday night which were heard in every radio station from San Diego to Puget sound. It is the opinion among shipping and wireless men in San Francisco that the scare thrown into the entire Pacific coast was the work of some amateur with a high-powered system.

NOT OAKLAND'S CAINE.

J. E. Caine, who lives at the Star lodging-house, was hit by a friend in an argument at Sixth and Wood streets, West Oakland, last evening. He had a badly lacerated scalp. Iodine was applied, and notation made on the hospital records that this wasn't the Joe Caine that made Oakland famous.

INJURED TESTING RAZOR.

C. Maynus, a cook, of 575 Eleventh street, tested a razor with his thumb last night. He reported at the Emergency hospital after discovering that the blade was sharper than he expected. A deep cut was dressed at the hospital, after which he was sent home.

FAMILY IS HELD INDOORS BY DOG

Vicious Animal Camps on the Porch of Plitz Residence for Many Hours.

The police are having difficulty in enforcing the dog-muzzling ordinance. Two men were bitten yesterday by unmuzzled dogs and a family was kept prisoner by a large black dog for several hours when the canine camped in front of the house and refused to be driven away. The dog kept possession of the front porch of the home of E. Plitz, 3537 East Twelfth street from about noon yesterday and it was not until midnight last night that the family was released when Patrolman Connolly was summoned. Connolly shot the dog. The dog was apparently vicious and attacked every one who came near the house.

Fred Mattfeldt was arrested by Patrolman Keith at Forty-seventh and the Foothill boulevard for allowing his dog to run at large without a muzzle. He had been warned several times by the police after complaints had been made by people in the neighborhood. Mattfeldt was released on $5 bail, but Chief of Police Wood said he would raise the bail today to $50.

Mathew Kernan, 1525 Peralta street, was bitten by a dog in front of 1511 Peralta street, the animal tearing his lip and inflicting a gash on his forehead.

Joseph McGettigan, 563 Nineteenth street, was bitten on the left leg by a dog at 5975 Claremont avenue.

BIG GAINS MADE AT MILLS COLLEGE

Enrollment This Year One-Sixth Larger Than Twelve Months Ago.

Registration at Mills College shows an increase of nearly 18 per cent over the number registered at this time last year. The dormitories are full and sleeping porches have been built to provide for those girls who prefer to sleep out. In addition to the large number of girls on the campus, an unusual number of day students are enrolled at the college.

Two additions have been made to the faculty in the Department of Science. Dr. Gibbons becomes professor of chemistry and Dr. Wilson becomes professor of biology. Dr. Gibbons comes to Mills after a long and varied experience both in teaching and research work, while Dr. Wilson also is highly recommended.

The dramatic association announces that the college play chosen for presentation this fall is Hauptmann's "The Sunken Bell." This play will be given, as usual, out of doors in one of the many beautiful natural settings to be found on the Mills campus. Miss Safford, the coach, feels that although the play is not an easy one to give, it will be unusually successful because of the large amount of talent ready to hand. Other plays which have been given successfully by the association in an outdoor setting are "Love's Labor Lost," 1913, and Jonson's "The Bad Shepherd," 1914.

UNITED RAILROADS' WRIT IS ARGUED

Question of Mandatory or Prohibitive Injunction Before Supreme Court.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 27.—Arguments were begun in the Supreme Court this morning in connection with the application of the United Railroads for a writ of mandate to compel the Superior Court to enforce the terms of Judge Sturtevant's injunction removing the city's Exposition cars from lower Market street.

Attorneys William M. Cannon and Matt Sullivan, representing the United Railroads and the municipality respectively, presented the arguments pro and con before the court. The question which the the supreme tribunal is called upon to decide is whether Judge Sturtevant's injunction was prohibitive or mandatory.

Superior Judge Crothers decided that it was mandatory and that therefore Mayor Rolph and the members of the Board of Public Works could not be held guilty of contempt for defying it pending an appeal. Should it be held that it was a prohibitive injunction it would mean that it would go in force immediately whether an appeal was taken or not and that therefore it might be held that the city officials were in contempt.

WITNESSES TELL OF TURK HORROR

Armenian Massacres Said to Be Worse Than Any of Abdul Hamid.

By Associated Press.

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—A statement covering the massacre of Armenians in Turkey was given out here by Professor Samuel T. Dutton, secretary of the committee on Armenian Atrocities. The statement follows:

"A sub-committee has thoroughly investigated the evidence and has made report to the full committee, confirming in every particular the statement made recently by Viscount Bryce regarding the imprisonment, torture, murder, massacre, and exile into the deserts of Northern Arabia of defenseless and innocent Armenians, including decrepit men, women and children.

Written testimonies of eye witnesses, whose names are known to the committee, but which obviously cannot now be made public, have been examined. This testimony covers the character and positions of the authors and the positiveness of utterance carry absolute conviction.

The witnesses examined include Armenians, Greeks, Bulgarians, Italians, Germans, Turks, Englishmen and Americans of rank.

Not a single statement can be questioned. These all agree that from Smyrna on the west to Persia and from the Black Sea to Arabia a propaganda of extermination of non-Moslems now is being carried on by the Turkish government, surpassing in ferocity and exceeding in destruction anything done by Abdul Hamid during his long career of massacre and extermination.

TORTURE IS PRACTICED.

"The statements examined, many of which are in possession of the committee, cover hundreds of towns and cities in which, in many instances, all of the Armenians have been killed outright, often after horrible torture, or sent to the desert to die of starvation and that, too, with diabolical cruelty.

"The ostensible deportation of men, women and children toward Mesopotamia usually is but a form of marching those starving, helpless and frequently naked refugees, out into the mountains to be outraged and butchered, sometimes by their guard and sometimes by the Kurds, who gladly co-operate in the work of destruction.

"Included among these refugees and victims are pupils and graduates from the American schools and colleges, teachers and professional men, who have taken degrees in American and European universities—men and women who have represented the brains and enterprise of the country for a generation or more.

"The plan of procedure, which is identical in all parts of the country, seems to aim at the complete elimination of all non-Moslem races from Asiatic Turkey and already that aim is in fair way to accomplishment, so far as Armenians are concerned.

"In several places American property has been seized, Americans searched, imprisoned and expelled from the country, their letters and telegrams, even from United States consular offices, interrupted, and their lives put in jeopardy.

500,000 KILLED.

"Evidence seems to prove that probably 500,000 Armenians have been murdered or forced to the desert, where only death awaits them unless relief is obtained at once. And all this has taken place since March and now is at the heighth of its grewsome fury.

"The committee is confident that if the press of the country should with all the emphasis at its command, voice its protest and call upon the Turkish government to put an end to this crime against humanity, and return the exiles who yet may be living, to their homes, it could hardly fail to produce results.

"In view of the great influence which Germany and Austria exercise over their ally, the American people cannot fail to hold them morally responsible if these atrocities are permitted to continue."

TELLS REASON FOR HER RESIGNATION

Miss Charlotte Whitney Did Not Oppose Dr. Equi; Supported Him.

Editor Tribune: Re your article Congress and Union and myself in your issue of September 26, I herewith enclose a copy of my letter of resignation as a member of the Advisory Board of that organization, and at the same time I am mailing the original to the Congressional Union so there can be no misunderstanding as to the time of my resignation. I call your attention to the misleading headline of your article, "Miss Whitney Accuses Dr. Equi." I am sure this was a printer's error. Will you kindly correct, as I have supported Dr. Equi in this controversy for the principle involved?

While seemingly this is a tempest in a teapot, it assumes serious proportions because the whole matter becomes a question of the lack of principle in the methods employed by the Union. The justice of the Susan B. Anthony amendment cannot be impaired because it is based upon human rights and the work for suffrage should be the embodiment of the principles of liberty and justice and must always be carried on along the lines of true democracy and without class distinction or discrimination against individuals. An organization which ourages any action which this amendment is based will by its methods eventually destroy itself unless it purifies itself.

Very truly yours,
CHARLOTTE ANITA WHITNEY.

Mrs. William Kent, California member of the Executive Committee of the Congressional Union of Woman Suffrage.

My Dear Mrs. Kent: With sincere regret I tender my resignation as a member of the advisory board of the Congressional Union for Woman Suffrage, though I believe in the Susan B. Anthony amendment as firmly as ever and in the policy that suffrage is the foremost political issue of the day.

I take this step because the Congressional Union is an autocratic organization with its control entirely in the hands of one woman. The Susan B. Anthony amendment and the whole suffrage movement stands for democracy, and work for it should seek to awaken and quicken women to the sense of responsibility and solidarity, based upon individual and social justice, but the Congressional Union is submerging the individuality of the workers into a blind following under a hypnotic leadership. The spirit underlying the work and methods is "The King can do no wrong," and the cause must be won regardless of the methods employed.

The continuance of this spirit and these methods is opposed to and destructive of everything for which the cause of suffrage stands. The advisory board at a recent meeting in San Francisco having put the seal of endorsement on these methods, I feel that I can no longer work under the banner of the Congressional Union nor allow my name to give an implied endorsement of its methods.

Very truly yours,
CHARLOTTE ANITA WHITNEY.

PANAMA PRESENTS PROPOSED TREATY

New Articles Intended to Supplant 1903 Pact, Published in Draft.

By Associated Press.

PANAMA, Sept. 27.—What purports to be the draft of a new treaty which the Panaman government desires to enter into with the United States was made public here today. The proposed treaty is intended to supplant the original treaty of 1903.

The most important of the twelve articles which it contains govern the transfer to the Panama government of all Panama railroad-owned lands in the cities of Panama and Colon, except those on which buildings already have been erected or are used by the railroad, together with the revocation of the previous privileges enjoyed by the railroad by virtue of the Colombian contracts, which privileges are to be replaced by others to be decided on later.

Other clauses provide for the turning over of the waterworks in the cities of Panama and Colon to Panama, the latter government reimbursing the United States for them; the exemption of machinery and agricultural implements manufactured in the United States from duty; the regulation of the Panama tax system by gradually reducing it; the establishment of compulsory military service in Panama for the defense of the canal in case Panama should be called upon to do so; Panama to fight a common enemy in case of war; permission to construct two railroads into the interior of the country, the United States to issue bonds covering the total cost of the roads, the amount to be paid back later by Panama, which will grant the United States the privilege to convert the roads into military roads in case of war; no intervention in the Panama elections by the United States, except at the request of the president of the republic; abolition of the commissaries at Balboa and Cristobal; Panama to keep her ad valorem duty within ten per cent; the arbitration of differences between Panama and the United States by a commission composed of one member each from the two countries interested and one each from the republics of Brazil, Chile and Argentina.

WILL ADDRESS TAXPAYERS.

Preston Higgins, the mayor's secretary, will explain "The Playground Situation" this evening to the West Oakland Taxpayers' Association, whose members will meet at 8 o'clock at the Prescott school. Mayor John L. Davie will also be present and the commissioners are expected. A. F. Husschmidt, president of the association, will preside at the session, which will principally be concerned with the filling in of the marsh and waterfront problems.

CLUB OPPOSED TO NON-PARTY LAW

Jeffersonians Pass Resolutions Denouncing Proposed Measures.

The Jefferson Club, which is taking quite an active interest against the adoption of the non-partisan law, passed by the recent legislature, at a recent meeting adopted unanimously the following resolution:

Whereas, a State election has been called for October 26, at which time the voters of the state will be called upon to express their sentiments and pass final judgment upon certain measures which, by their provisions, deny the rights of the citizens of the State of California, to form and maintain voluntary organizations, commonly known as political parties, and;

Whereas, it is the object and purpose of these measures to provide such a method of selecting, nominating and electing state officers, as will preclude the participation of any party organization in such selection and election, and;

Whereas, the Jefferson Club of Alameda county, a political party organization, has carefully considered these measures, has studied their provisions and is now fully advised as to the general effects which this so-called non-partisan election law will have upon our state government, and, being convinced that no representative form of government can be successfully maintained without recognized party organizations, and,

Whereas, this club, as a party organization, deems it for the best interest of all of the citizens of the state of California, that this proposed law be defeated at the polls on October 26, to the end that a representative form of government in our state may be retained.

Be it resolved: That the Jefferson Club of Alameda county does hereby, unanimously express as its judgment, that these measures, having for their object and purpose the denial of the fundamental right of the citizens of our state to join their efforts and express their united opinions through and by means of recognized party organizations, are un-American, unjust and are wholly at variance with all of the recognized principles of a republican form of government.

That these measures, as framed and passed by the legislature of this state, are without precedent in the United States of America, and are diametrically opposed to all of the well established principles of a representative form of government. That no representative form of government has ever been maintained in any state or country in the civilized world without party organizations recognized by the laws and supported and maintained by the citizens, and,

Be it further resolved, That the Jefferson Club now calls upon all of its members and upon every thoughtful citizen to make a careful study of these measures and the results which will follow if they should become the law in this state, and use every honorable means to insure their defeat at the polls on October 26, and

Be it further resolved: That copies of these resolutions be given to the press and forwarded to civic and political organizations.

(Signed) W. B. BUNKER,
President.
(Signed) W. J. HAYES,
Secretary.

The Jefferson Club is to hold an open meeting at Harrington-McInnis Hall, 2462 Twelfth street, tomorrow evening, at 8 o'clock.

The following is a list of speakers for the evening: H. H. McPike, H. W. Brunk, W. B. Bunker, John J. McDonald, George Beck, Assemblyman from the Livermore District; Mrs. Carrie Hoyt, Mrs. E. L. Ormbsy.

ACTRESS PLAYED TAG WITH LOVE

Former Associates of Murdered Woman Say She Was Irresistible.

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 27.—How the beautiful eyes of Marguerite Favar, the Los Angeles actress, who with J. C. Crowell, millionaire oil operator, was found murdered in Memphis, Tenn., were magnets of love which drew scores of men to her side, was told today by two Los Angeles girls who were members of her company.

The girls, who, in a dancing act, were for a year in the constant company of Miss Favar, are Miss Birdie Heyman and Miss Lovie Heyman, sisters, living at 807 West Forty-eighth street.

The story of Miss Favar's conquests in love formed a link in the "love trail" on which detectives are working to establish the identity of the slayer.

Although beautiful in every feature, the Heyman sisters said, Miss Favar's attractiveness lay in her large, brown eyes, which sparkled across the footlights and won the hearts of men.

"All Miss Favar would have to do was to look at a man," said Miss Birdie Heyman. "Men seemed to be hypnotized by a glance of her eyes. Of course, on the stage she made good use of her crowning beauty—her wonderful brown eyes. After a performance the stage door used to be crowded with men, just waiting for a chance to see Miss Favar off stage."

Said Miss Lovie Heyman:

"Miss Favar used to play with love. She would encourage one man just long enough to make him a jealous suitor. Then she would turn to the next. She seemed to be proud of her ability to lure men to her. She cared no more for one than the other. It was certainly love of a man for her that resulted in the tragedy."

THUG ATTACKS GIRL.

Miss Sarah Garfinkle, 1320 Chestnut street, was attacked by a thug shortly before 11 o'clock last night while she was on her way home. The man accosted her at Twelfth and Myrtle streets, and when she started to run struck her in the face. She screamed and the man ran away.

FELLED BY ASSAILANT.

Struck down by an unknown assailant early this morning, Charles Vest, an electrician living in San Leandro, was found by passersby on the street and brought to the Emergency hospital this morning. The man was unable to give an account of the assault. The police are investigating.

GILL TO ENFORCE SEATTLE DRY LAW

Announces Measure Will Be Made Effective While in Office.

SEATTLE, Wash., Sept. 27.—Mayor Hiram C. Gill, in an address at the Madrona Presbyterian church last night, announced that he would see to it that the prohibition law, which becomes effective January 1, would be enforced during the remaining two months of his term.

"I am tired of hearing men say every day 'It can't be enforced' 'What's the use of it, anyway?'" said Mayor Gill.

"I can, and will, make this law absolutely effective in Seattle. And my successor can enforce it if he wants to."

Mayor Gill criticised the provision of the law permitting individuals to ship in liquor for their own consumption but predicted that an amendment soon would be adopted preventing such importation.

A PLEA FOR ESSENTIALS IN EDUCATION.

At the Technical High School on Friday night a group of "educators" and persons in sympathy with "scientific" teaching had come to pleasant agreement with respect to certain phases of vocational training. They had decided to their own satisfaction that there wasn't much in it. Confirmation of this notion was added by certain "practical men" connected with the printing trade, under the theory that the only place where "practical" instruction may be gained is in the workshop.

Then rose a "young printer," who apologized for intruding diverging views upon a meeting where all seemed so harmonious. He pointed out that in the printing trade, with which he was associated, there were certain elemental matters very difficult to acquire practically without previous schooling. Spelling, punctuation and the like, essentials in the printing business, he thought should be learned in school so that when a youth came to his apprenticeship, he would have a fundamental equipment of vast helpfulness in his work. Warming to his subject, he broadened out into a plea for simple, elemental, old-fashioned training as distinct from many of the fads and fancies which have come to absorb a very large share of the time and energies both of the teachers and the pupils.

Here is a phase of education which our modern educators almost wholly overlook. Too few schools teach the simple and essential thing. In this connection it is pertinent to ask how many boys and girls, graduated from our grammar and high schools, can read readily and intelligently, write a fair hand, spell accurately and express simple things in clean and straight English? Is it not a fact that not one in ten—we nearly said one in a hundred—are thus accomplished?

The truth is that, under the passion of the modern educator for "frills," the essentials of old-fashioned training are largely overlooked and thrust to one side. Somehow the purpose of our schools seems to have gotten away from really important and practical things. It teaches something of drawing, something of foreign languages, something of this, that and the other ornamental thing, to the practical abandonment of the great essential fundamentals of education—the things which make for efficiency in practical life.

It's a sad fact—a very sad fact—but it's true. The great purpose of education is preparation for life. And how prepared for life is the boy or girl who, given a certain training in "accomplishments," is still lacking in these fundamental values which rest upon the old-fashioned efficiencies of reading, writing, spelling, with the simpler operations of mathematics?

"BUTTING IN."

James Hamilton Lewis, United States Senator from Chicago, Ill., a district where there is a large German vote, has just had revealed to him an astounding situation. A few days ago he wrote the Federal Reserve Board at Washington a strongly-worded protest against the negotiation of a proposed loan of something like a billion dollars between a commission of English and French bankers and New York financiers. Now Chairman Hamlin has informed him that the Federal Reserve Board knows nothing of such a proposed loan except what it has read in the public press, and that, inasmuch as the government has nothing to do with the loan, the Federal Reserve Bank is without authority in the matter. This surely was a staggering blow to the Senator. It had begun to look as if the nation would pass through the present crisis with foreign governments without Senator J. Ham finding an opportunity to occupy any portion of the stage. Then came the happy thought of interfering with private financial and industrial interests—a promise of political capital. In the full flush of inspiration is reaped the harvest of disappointment and gloom. Such is woe.

The worst is not yet. Senator Lewis has a long-established habit of being a convention candidate for the Vice-Presidency on the Democratic ticket. The chance of being a running mate to President Wilson in 1916 has begun to lure Senator Lewis with a greater appeal even than in 1896 and 1900, when Bryan was the party's choice for the first office. A lack of appreciation of circumstances and procedure in a matter in which the entire country is pretty well informed, such as the Senator displayed in writing to the Federal Reserve Board, may react to his disadvantage.

Back in 1898 Senator Lewis was made a something-something on the staff of General F. D. Grant in Cuba. About eight years after the Spanish-American war had terminated he made a tour of the world and on the registers of all the hotels he visited between Tokio and Malta he wrote after his name, "Avocat Militaire." Several Americans then in the Far East wrote to their friends in Congress to inquire what was an "avocat militaire." The answers were varied. It was easy to translate the French phrase into English, but no one could understand how the title came to be identified with Senator (then ex-Congressman) Lewis.

A similar sort of a riddle confronts the friends of Senator Lewis at present. The American bankers who have a billion to loan, the Federal Reserve Board and the visiting commissioners who have authority from their governments to borrow a billion, are perhaps a hopeless lot when it comes to possessing a knowledge of their business, their opportunities, their prerogatives and their limitations, but what has Senator Lewis to offer and what does he hope to accomplish? This question applies to a large number of other persons who are making themselves heard at this juncture.

A CHANCE FOR AMERICAN DOCTORS.

The European war is causing many changes and surprising readjustments in social organization. One of the pressing wants in Great Britain which comes as a direct result from losses at the front relates to the service of physicians and surgeons. Large numbers of able-bodied doctors have enlisted and gone to the various theatres of war with the troops. Mortality among them has been very considerable and now there is loud complaint from Lord Kitchener and other military authorities that they have not enough surgeons to meet the necessities of the troops on the firing line. Not only have many doctors been killed, but there would not be enough to care for the wounded even if there were no losses in the ranks of the medical profession itself. Medical students in England are being hurried through their courses and urged to enlist as rapidly as possible.

It is believed that after the war there will be a great dearth of competent physicians and surgeons for a number of years in the United Kingdom. This probability seems to be admitted on all sides and doubtless there is a considerable degree of truth in the statement. If there are not enough doctors to supply the needs of the population in Great Britain immediately after the war, it is not unlikely that a few thousand could be spared from this country, where the supply seems sometimes to be in excess of the immediate demand. We have a large number of excellent medical colleges in the United States which are graduating annually hundreds of young doctors, many of them highly competent and admirable men. There are now in this country several thousand physicians who have been practicing for four or five years who have had excellent hospital experience and who would be eminently qualified to practice in England. American dentists have long enjoyed pre-eminent popularity in all European countries and there is no reason, if there is a real demand for more physicians in England after the war, why that demand may not be met by duly qualified medical practitioners from the United States.

Wireless operators in and about San Francisco Bay spent an anxious night between Saturday and Sunday in an endeavor to locate an S. O. S. call—in other words, a cry of distress. Apparently it came from the sea; but up to this writing nobody has been able to locate it. Probably this S. O. S. call was nothing more nor less than the prank of some mischievous lad, practicing with an amateur wireless outfit. It has happened before to the confusion of the serious use of the wireless telegraph and at times it has so confused a serious situation as to result in loss of life. High time that definite authority should assume control of wirelss operations and put a stop to a kind of play which may result in hardship and even death to persons in peril.

In the matter of positive developments, there is no change in the local strike situation. But through all the negotiations there appears this very significant fact—namely, that nobody wants a strike. Neither the employes of the San Francisco-Oakland Terminal Railways nor the officers of that company have any wish to quarrel one with the other. And this being evident, a situtation which on its face appears serious is probably not serious at all. In the opinion of The Tribune, there will be no strike—most certainly it hopes that there will be none.

Deputy County Clerk William J. L'heureaux—Larue in plain English—who is something of a boxer, is seeking a match with Jess Willard. If he gets it, and if he lives through it, Mr. L'heureux may not be so pretty to look at but he will probably know more.

CRITICISM FOR THE "RESERVES"

Sergeant Ryan of the National Guard Falls to Understand Purpose of the "First Regiment."

To the Editor: These are times when national defense is one of the biggest topics of the day. Our military and naval experts all agree that national defense may be summed up in two parts. An adequate standing army and navy, and an efficient reserve. As to the former there is much uniformity of opinion, as regards the latter, a considerable diversity.

There are those who advocate a system of military training in our public schools, those who favor a short, compulsory enlistment in the army, those who are for a short voluntary enlistment in the regular service, with a longer term on the reserve list, and finally, those who advocate a large, uniformed, equipped, and thoroughly disciplined force of which we now have the skeleton, which we call the National Guard. In the very humble opinion of the writer, the last of these is the most feasible, and consequently the one which needs to be fostered and encouraged.

The daily papers of the last few days have contained items of news concerning the formation of a so-called military organization, in our city, with the large-sounding title, "First Regiment, California Reserves," or something to that effect. It is evident that either the leaders of this movement are sadly lacking in knowledge of the first principles of what we might term the military primer, or else they are acting not altogether with perfectly unselfish and patriotic motives. In the first place, their method of organization shows a deficiency in the A B C's of the military game. We are led to understand that a full quota of field and staff officers have already been selected, we might add, "a full quota and then some," for how in the world, and where, they ever intend to place and make use of so many adjutants, quartermasters, etc., as enumerated, and in any sense live up to modern methods of organization and administration, is more than the writer can figure out. Then again, they show considerable ignorance in their method of building up their organization. It were as if a builder or an engineer planned and constructed a large and towering skyscraper, commencing at the cornice, descending through each of the many stories, and finally putting the finishing touches in on the foundation. Or to apply it to the case at hand, if it should be that the motives of those heading the organization of this regiment are unquestionable, they are still at fault. Regiments are composed of battalions, which in turn are made up of companies, and the whole is impossible without each and all its parts. Consequently, their first move should have been the mustering in of companies, then the grouping of these into the several battalions, and finally the welding of the battalions into the unit called the regiment. This is the only logical way of providing for a bona-fide organization. Of course, if "The First Regiment" is organized and maintained for the primary purpose of providing for and conferring titles of colonel, major, captain, etc. on the chosen ones, then the writer admits that he is wrong, and the fathers of this body are correct in their methods.

Assuming, however, that the motives of its leaders are of the highest order, I still maintain that they are fundamentally wrong. It is self-evident that, because of their very independence, they neither have, nor can have, an official military status. This alone renders them useless as a link in our chain of national defense. Without federal supervision, which, under the present system of our national government they cannot have without this supervision, which all duly recognized units receive, they positively cannot be of value to the nation. In Oakland there is only one form of our national scheme of defense which is organized and recognized by the nation. This is the National Guard, of which three organizations are stationed here, a battery of field artillery, and two companies of infantry. It is towards these units, then, the leaders of "The California Reserve" should divert their entirely misdirected efforts. If they cannot or will not, then their ignorance, or lack of good intent is manifest.

To my mind there are only three classes of men who are not and cannot be eligible for service with the National Guard, as it constitutes the reserve. The first includes those who, unfortunately, are physically disabled; the second, those whose business or occupational interest preclude any such activity, while the third, an unfortunately large group, is composed of those who for various reasons, are opposed, many of them religiously so, to militarism, in even the most modified form. These three classes are admittedly poor material for the cogs which compose the machinery of our national defense system.

It cannot be that the members of the "First Regiment" are in any of the classes enumerated. Their very organization, their intentions as stated in the news, contradicts any such idea. Therefore, it must be that they are not altogether genuine in their motives. Any group of men who band themselves together with the intention of fitting themselves to be a part of our system of national defense, with the facts of the case as the writer has attempted to describe herein, while two, at least, in the three organizations of the National Guard, the only legitimate reserve force in this city, have a continuous struggle to exist; I repeat, any group of men, so organized, and assumed to know better, who would suck the life blood, as they will do, of units that are acknowledged officially as part and parcel in our reserve system, either are sadly lacking in a knowledge of the first principles of the defense movement, or else the motives which prompt them to organize are anything but genuine.

In conclusion, it is the writer's desire to assure the "First Regiment, California Reserves," that nothing set forth in this article is meant in a personal way, but that it is written solely in a cause which he has earnestly advocated for quite a few years.

ADDITIONAL EVIL EFFECTS OF THE SEAMAN'S BILL.

The San Francisco Chamber of Commerce issues this statement:

Not only has the Administration Seaman's Bill driven the Pacific Mail from the Pacific, but it is preventing other companies from engaging in this business. After months of effort the Foreign Trade Department had practically prevailed upon the Java-China-Japan Line to establish a service between San Francisco and China, Philippines and East Indies, but has just received a letter from that company stating:

"Seeing that the Pacific Mail Steamship Company has been compelled to withdraw from the Pacific Ocean in consequence of the La Follette Seaman's Act, we are more or less afraid that in the future some similar legislation may be enforced against foreign steamship companies. We do not lose sight of the importance of establishing a direct line between Netherlands, India and San Francisco, but have to wait till circumstances render the operation of such a line possible.

In response to a suggestion to establish a line between San Francisco and Central America the Union Fruit Company write:

"I should be interested to learn how our company could maintain successfully, under the American flag, a business between San Francisco and ports on the west coast of Mexico and Central America, which the Pacific Mail has been forced to abandon on account of the Seaman's Act."

MUST CHECK INCENDIARISM.

The refusal of Governor Johnson to pardon Ford and Suhr, serving sentences for the murder of District Attorney Manwell, during the hop field riots, is approved by all right minded citizens. The governor has taken the right stand. Yielding would have been an incentive and encouragement for similar demands in the future, accompanied by greater lawlessness and and violence. Besides, the threats and incendiary acts following the governor's decision prove conclusively that the judge was right in sentencing the men, and the governor is justified in refusing to interfere.

In the meantime, however, innocent property owners are suffering severe losses and facing bankruptcy on account of the work of these incendiaries. Many hop growers have already been ruined, and losses from incendiary fires total more than a million dollars in California alone. The case calls for drastic treatment. State and local officials should sustain the governor by vigorous prosecution of the criminals. No stone should be left unturned in bringing the guilty to justice and ridding the community of these rioters. Already the incendiary work has spread into Oregon and Washington. Doubtless the officials in all the states will be uncompromising in the work of convicting and punishing the criminals.

The officials may be assured of the moral and material support of all law abiding citizens in checking this wave of crime. There is a vigorous public sentiment for the severe punishment of these acts of lawlessness, and the suppression of the criminal element.—Stockton Independent.

Anti-Militarism League Opposes Military Training Camps in Letters to Eighty Thousand University and College Students—The Replies.

Within the last few weeks about 80,000 copies of a letter, vouched for by the Collegiate Anti-Militarism League, have been mailed to university and college students of the United States with the object of discouraging attendance at the military training camps. The letter has been brought to the attention of certain persons who have undertaken to defend the military training camps and with this purpose in view, there has been compiled and is now being circulated, a pamphlet in which the letter of the Anti-Militarism League is answered by Brigadier-General Charles A. Woodruff, retired, and Stanley M. Arndt, a student at the University of California. Here is part of the letter from the Anti-Militarism League, of which K. G. Karsten of New York is president:

"You have completed what is in American life rather a unique experience. You have associated with military specialists and enthusiasts, until it is but natural that you should have caught a great deal of their enthusiasm. There are few things quite so infectious as military zeal, especially when it is known as 'highly patriotic.' Is it not perhaps possible that the great object of the student summer camps was to spread the enthusiasm for the military life?

"Some high military authorities have admitted this, by stating that if there were universal conscription, that would stop 'all this anti-militaristic talk.' But, as you know, they do not attempt to spread any knowledge of The Hague, or international arbitration, or the sanctity of treaties, or international law, or even the value of international commerce, the significance of international business companies, or the value of exchange professors and student scholarships such as the Rhodes scholarships. Indeed, it happens that many of their advocates are really men with strong feelings of race and national prejudice rather than men of international vision.

"What effect did the student training camp have on your world outlook? Is the question, therefore, for which we ask your reply. Did it make you more anxious to maintain friendly relations with other countries and widen your outlook upon the world and race questions? Do you think you have made a positive contribution to the safety of our country rather than the beginnings of the same path that the European nations traveled?

"Or do you consider that the college training camp was on the whole a narrowing experience, that it tended to center your enthusiasm in national affairs, above all in the details of national hostilities and misunderstandings, and perhaps inclined you to a prejudice against the foreigner in general?

"Please keep the question clearly before you, for it is the only one to which we wish an answer. We are trying to find out to how great an extent the summer camps are responsible for dwarfing the college man's vision to this one phase."

This letter is signed by Mr. Karsten as president.

The answer by Mr. Arndt of the University of California takes up the letter paragraph by paragraph. Mr. Arndt refers to the fact that among the strongest advocates of the military training camps are President Wilson and ex-Presidents Taft and Roosevelt, and continues in part:

NATIONALISM DEFENDED.

"Do you expect that in the military camps the instructors in charge can preach on the sanctity of treaties and of international law when Germany has invaded Belgium, when Italy has repudiated the Triple Alliance, when the rules of international law as regards land and naval warfare have been broken day after day? Do you condemn the summer camps because the lecturers do not speak of The Hague after the Lusitania was torpedoed, after gas bombs have been used, after defenseless noncombatants have been slaughtered in cold blood and their homes pillaged?

"Do you think for an instant that you can find men, real men, who have no race and national prejudice? A man without a country must be a sorry sight. We are Americans in this country. Why is it that the sight of the Stars and Stripes stirs the blood of every American on foreign shore? Nationalism is one of the strongest traits the human animal has."

The writer answers the question whether the training he received at the Summer camp did him any good. It did, he says, and he regrets that more students did not take advantage of the same opportunity. Mr. Arndt, under the sub-caption, "Nations Are Human," says:

"Suppose this country found herself attacked, just as Belgium did. I could then thank God that I was prepared. If this country is attacked, I want to feel that I am at least equal to one of the enemy, while you, scorning preparedness, would be about equal to one-tenth of an enemy's soldier!

In his answer General Woodruff says:

"The letter sneers at patriotism, at love of one's country, the passion which moves a person to serve his country, either in defending it from invasion or in protecting its rights and maintaining its laws and institutions. Do the members of this league love their country? Would they defend it from invasion? Would they protect its rights? Would they maintain its laws and institutions?

"If the members of the league can answer these questions in the negative, their position is logical. They are at heart men and women without a country, and I wish we had an Edward Everett Hale to furnish them transportation."

BERKELEY GOSSIP of STUDENTS AND RESIDENTS IN UNIVERSITY TOWN AND SOCIAL & PERSONAL HAPPENINGS of DAY in the ISLAND CITY ALAMEDA

LIQUORS MAY BE GIVEN TO GUESTS

"Personal Use" in Berkeley Ordinance Defined by City Attorney.

BERKELEY, Sept. 27. — Once you get it in the house, you can use liquor almost as you like in Berkeley, according to a new interpretation of the law which recently went into effect controlling carriers of intoxicating substances. According to City Attorney Stringham, "personal use," as contained in the ordinance, may extend to the dispensing of a cocktail to each of your guests at a social evening, if you feel so disposed.

The ordinance prevents any one bringing liquor into Berkeley except for his personal use, disposing of the tradesmen's wagons that were wont to haul it into this city from outside points until the new ordinance was adopted. Now the only authority under which persons can use is a little more, in a proper construction of the law, than it would seem to entail. He holds that a man is making a "personal use" of liquor when he dispenses a bit to friends at a social gathering.

The new ordinance has served in very small measure to reduce the amount of liquor brought into this city. Whereas before it was brought in on wagons open, it is now brought in surreptitiously in suitcases and Gladstone bags and carefully wrapped bundles, in the back of buggies and under the seats of automobiles or in hip pockets or marketing baskets.

One group of families who live near a boot line of the city have their beverage set down by the delivery wagon just across the line, where they bring it in individually for their "personal use." As the law provides that liquor may be carried through the city from an outside to an outside point, there is no way by which the police may interfere with this arrangement.

The number of arrests for drunkenness in Berkeley, never averaging more than one or two to the month, has not decreased since the new ordinance went into effect.

BERKELEY TO BOOST BOY SCOUT MOVEMENT

BERKELEY, Sept. 27. — For the organization of the Boy Scout work in this city under favorable auspices, a mass meeting has been arranged for next Monday evening at the Berkeley High school auditorium. H. D. Cross, national field secretary of the Boy Scouts on the Pacific Coast, will be the chief speaker. Demonstrations will be given by a Boy Scout organization from San Francisco and Berkeley and moving pictures of "The Adventures of a Boy Scout" will be displayed.

It is planned to institute a Boy Scout company in every section of the city. Several individuals, especially Patrolman H. P. Lee of the police force, have interested themselves recently and started companies, Lee having a highly popular organization under his eye in South Berkeley. In the cleaning up of the city and in other ways this company has been of notable service.

Dr. David P. Barrows, dean of the university faculty, Mayor Samuel C. Irving and others are interested in a movement, including Police Chief Vollmer, M. James, A. H. Allen, Mrs. T. C. Morehouse, Mrs. M. L. Cheney, Thomas Reed, Mrs. William E. Colby and others. The purpose of the new movement is to perfect a city-wide organization of the Boy Scouts and provide finances to purchase uniforms and other equipment.

INITIATION HELD BY LEGAL FRATERNITY

BERKELEY, Sept. 27. — Phi Delta Phi, the legal honor fraternity, held an initiation and banquet Saturday in San Francisco at which eleven new members were initiated. Professor William Carey Jones presided at the affair and speeches were made by R. L. Blanchard, Matt Wahrhaftig and the Hon. William W. Morrow. The new members are:

V. M. Otrola, R. C. Forester, Matt Wahrhaftig, F. A. Cobb, S. F. Hollins, Philip Conley, H. A. Judy, D. F. Maddox, J. B. Whitton, M. J. Reinhart and Hon. W. W. Morrow.

ALAMEDA, Sept. 27. — Miss Charlotte Brush made Miss Beverley Nason, fiancee of Robert Power, and Miss Roberta Haslett, the inspiration for the 4 o'clock tea which she gave on Saturday afternoon at her home in Northbrae. The hostess was assisted in receiving the thirty guests by the Misses Nason and Haslett, and Marion Michell. Genevieve Pratt, Gladys Emmons, Harriet Sargent, Marjorie Stoltz, Helen Weston, with Mesdames John Whipple and Raymond Snowden.

POULTRY EXPERT TO SPEAK.

ALAMEDA, Sept. 27. — Local poultry fanciers will attend the lecture to be given Tuesday evening, October 5, before the Alameda County Poultry Association, when T. E. Quisenberry, superintendent of the poultry exhibit at the Exposition will speak on "The Poultry Industry of California: Present and Future; Best Methods to Pursue to Win Success." The lecture will be illustrated and will be held in Eagles Hall, East Fourteenth street and Thirty-seventh avenue, East Oakland. All are invited to attend and hear the address.

There is apparently no one of that name living on Washington street and Peralta has sent word to that effect to the Los Angeles police.

'FRESHIES' ARE THESPIANS U. C. F C. IS GOOD TO THEM

PRUNELLA CAST HAS MANY NOTABLES

BERKELEY, Sept. 27.—California and Stanford Universities have reversed in dramatics the conflict which caused the separation in athletics. In the latter Stanford held tightly to freshmen participants while in the former California has been especially good to the baby class. The local thespians were interested to note recently a Stanford dispatch to the effect that freshmen women students were forbidden to appear in college dramatics. The order was issued there by the Women's Conference which is vested with control in such matters by the faculty.

The ruling was of especial interest here where the lead in the production of "Prunella," by the English club, has been assigned to a freshman woman student, Miss Ruth Hammond. Several other freshmen women are also in the cast. Under the direction of Reginald Travers, preparations for the production are rapidly proceeding. The play will be given on the evening of October 16 in the Greek theater. A special feature is to be made of the scenery.

Among the others who have a prominent part in the play are William Ramey, Miss Camile Purdy and other prominent student players.

Elks Spend Weary Hours on Sandbar

ALAMEDA, Sept. 27.—Several members of the Alameda Elks passed long hours on the good yacht Speedwell last night when the tide receded and left the vessel stranded on a bar off the Encinal Yacht Club. The Speedwell, Captain Strom, carried members of the Alameda Lodge of Elks to the "oyster bust" held by San Mateo Lodge, B. P. O. E., yesterday.

Captain Strom banded his "merry men" for the voyage home. All went well until about 5 o'clock last evening, when the Speedwell went on a sandbar. And there the vessel remained until midnight, when she was put under way again.

WENT TO SAN JOSE: SURPRISE WITH WEDDING

Mrs. Mary Gustaveson, formerly of Salt Lake, and Arthur Brewick, member of the Oakland fire department, went to San Jose last Tuesday and were married by a justice of the peace. On their return to Oakland they announced their wedding to a surprised circle of friends. Brewick and his bride are occupying a new home in the Lakeside district.

MOOSE LOSE TROPHY CUP.

RICHMOND, Sept. 27. — Under the command of Captain McCausland, the drill team of El Cerrito Camp, Modern Woodmen, yesterday won the silver loving cup from the Moose defenders of this city. This was the third and deciding competition for this beautiful piece of silverware and was a feature of the joint picnic given by the Moose social club and the K. of P. club at East Shore park, where several hundred people enjoyed a day's outing, witnessing the drill, a baseball game in which the Modern Woodmen nine defeated the Moose nine, and dancing. The band of the Greater Oakland Camp of the Modern Woodmen of America was a feature of the day.

INJURED IN COLLISION.

The automobile he was riding in colliding with a train, Gottfried Jacobs of New York, who arrived to visit the Exposition on the Kroonland a few days ago, was injured last night at First and Broadway when his machine was leaving the Creek route ferry. He was brought to the Emergency hospital suffering from bruises and lacerations.

CLASS CONFIRMED BY ARCHBISHOP

Sacrament Administered to 175 Communicants of Catholic Church.

ALAMEDA, Sept. 27.— One hundred and seventy-five communicants of the Catholic church received the sacrament of confirmation yesterday at St. Joseph church, following the last mass. The sacrament was administered by his grace the right Rev. Archbishop Edward J. Hanna of the arch diocese, assisted by the Rev. Father J. Bernard Praught, pastor of the local church and the sponsors Mrs. C. H. McCarthy and Joseph Durney. The Rev. J. P. Cantwell of the Cathedral clergy, and private secretary of the archbishop, attended him.

The mass was celebrated by the Rev. Father Doyle assisted by Father Praught and Father Galvin of St. Joseph's parish and benediction followed the confirmation. Beside the applicants for confirmation, of which twenty-five were adults, sixty-seven young boys and the remainder the young girls in white gowns and veils, filled the center pews of the church.

In the chancel were the Rev. Fathers T. J. O'Connell of Mission San Jose, formerly of this city; the Rev. Father Richard Collins, head of the League of the Cross; Rev. Father Morrison of Berkeley, the Rev. Father Barry of St. Patrick's, West Oakland; Rev. Father Keane of St. Francis de Sales, Rev. Father Quinn, St. Andrews of West Oakland; Rev. Father J. H. Butler, St. Augustine; Rev. Father Galli, St. Joseph's, Oakland; Rev. Father Nolan of East Oakland, and Rev. Father Scanlon of St. Colomba; Rev. Father Lacey of St. Leo's and the Rev. Father Sullivan of St. Anthony's.

Before administering the confirmation the archbishop in his Episcopal robes, of gold cloth with gold mitre and crozier, ascended to the altar which was decorated with tall white chrysanthemums and brilliantly lighted and seated here he received the suppliants, annointing them with the chrism. During the service there was an accompaniment of solemn music on the organ. The full choir rendered Prevost's mass before the confirmation, the soloists being Miss Florence McDonnell, Mrs. Frank Dunleavy, William Callinan with Miss Louise Rhein at the organ and Miss Rebecca Rich, choir director.

The archbishop in his address to the boys following the ceremonial said:

"Confirmation gives you the strength to fight the battle of life. Remember, you are now soldiers of Jesus Christ and are to serve for truth, right and justice, for the things that last and not the things that pass. Learn to control and keep away from those things that are the greatest danger to you."

He then asked those who would pledge themselves to not touch liquor at least until they were twenty years of age to stand and repeat the words of the pledge in unison, including a promise to do all in their power to keep others from the great danger of drink. With a few words to the parents of their sacred trust and their duty to see that their children were put under the influences that will make for higher things. His grace concluded with his solemn blessing.

PLANS CONCERTS FOR CHILDREN

Fifth Berkeley School Musical Season to Open With Tenor Recital.

BERKELEY, Sept. 27. — To hear some of the best known musical artists of the day at little more than the cost of a good lead pencil for each recital is the possibility laid before school children of this city by William Edwin Chamberlain, a prominent local musician. Chamberlain announced today the opening this week of the fifth season of school children's concerts in this city.

Evan Williams, the well known young American tenor, is to give the first of the series at the Berkeley high school auditorium next Thursday afternoon, beginning at 3:20 o'clock. Four other concerts will be given during the season, well known instrumentalists and vocalists already having promised to appear. Williams has not yet announced his program, but with Chamberlain, has arranged that it shall consist of songs already made familiar to the children through rendition on their school phonographs. He will be accompanied by Giulio Ormay at the piano. The concert will last about an hour and a half.

Although definite announcement of the other recitals in the series is not yet ready, Chamberlain states that these will include an orchestra, the Hecht quintet and a harpsichordist on date to be announced later. At a fifth concert one of the best known of American prima donnas is to appear if negotiations now under way with her are successful.

For four years Chamberlain, with the approval of the board of education and the assistance of teachers in the schools, has managed these concerts and they have proved highly successful, especially from an educational standpoint. As in past years, a season ticket for school children at an extraordinarily low figure in view of the worth of the offerings has been arranged, and 800 season tickets at this price are to be sold to children on Thursday. A higher rate has been fixed for adults who will be admitted to the recitals, though these are especially intended for children.

INTERESTING BULLETIN ISSUED BY DEAN HUNT

BERKELEY, Sept. 27. — Contradiction is made of the prevalent belief among ranchers that exclusive feeding of alfalfa to dairy milk cows tends to produce sterility by a recent bulletin just issued by Dean Thomas F. Hunt of the agricultural department of the State University. According to Professor C. H. Haring of the veterinary science division, long and careful investigations have found no evidence to suspect alfalfa of having to do with sterility. Professor Haring declares that from his observations certain fed exclusively on alfalfa showed less sterility than those fed partly with this fodder or those receiving none of it.

By trying the experiment of putting the first cutting of alfalfa fields into a silo in April and feeding it during July and August to 107 range steers, together with a good cutting of second alfalfa hay and also with rolled barley, the university has found another way to hoodwink cows into greedily eating weedy alfalfa. This scheme is a boon to all alfalfa growers and is thought will spread rapidly.

NEEDLE GUILD TO MEET.

ALAMEDA, Sept. 27. — The members of the Alameda branch of the National Needle Work Guild of America will meet on Friday afternoon next, October 1, at the home of Mrs. Waldo Parkhurst. A resume of the recent conclave of the national body at the P. P. I. E. will form part of the program of the day.

Campanile Lift To Be Fast One

Students May Whiz to Top of Tall Tower

BERKELEY, Sept. 27.—The University of California campanile, or the Jane K. Sather tower, recently erected on the campus, is to be equipped with a twelve-man elevator capable of a speed of 250 feet per minute, according to the engineers working on the structure. The machinery was installed last week and the cage is now ready for attachment.

The conveyance has a 3000-pound line-weight capacity and is supported by over 200 feet of three-quarter-inch steel cable. The elevator is not to go over seven levels, the remainder of the distance being made by concrete stairway. Tests of the machine, to extend over thirty days, are being made before turning it over to the university.

JAPANESE PEACE ENVOY TO SPEAK AT UNIVERSITY

BERKELEY, Sept. 27. — As special envoy of the Japan Peace Society, and bearing letters from Count Okuma, Premier of Japan, Dr. Danjo Ebina of Tokio, Japan, will visit the University of California tomorrow and will speak at 8 o'clock in the evening, in 101 California Hall, on "The Significance of Japanese and American Conceptions of Democracy." The public will be welcome.

Dr. Ebina is known as one of the ablest public speakers in Japan. For more than 30 years he has been one of the foremost leaders of social and intellectual development in his native country. He has stood as so powerful and forthright an exponent of the doctrines of internationalism as at times to be attacked by jingo elements in Japan. Through numerous books written in Japanese, on the problems of ethics and of modern society and through his work as editor of the leading religious paper in Japan, he has contributed largely to the progress of thought in his native land. He is pastor of the Hongo Congregational church at Tokio, one of the largest in Japan. As a boy he was a student in the school established in Japan by Captain Janes, in which all teaching was done in English. He graduated afterwards from Doshisha University. He has visited the United States repeatedly.

Dr. Ebina is to leave California for Japan the first week of October, so his lecture at the University will be one of the last opportunities for a California audience to hear his message of friendship and good will as between the nations that border on the Pacific.

RICHMOND CHURCH INSTALLS PASTOR

Oakland Clergyman Takes Charge of First Presbyterian With Impressive Exercises.

RICHMOND, Sept. 27. — With a very elaborate ceremony, Rev. Henry K. Sanborne was yesterday evening duly installed as the pastor of the First Presbyterian church. The pretty church was crowded to the doors.

Mrs. Maude Prouhard Norton, organist for the church, opened the program with the organ prelude and the congregation sang the hymn "All Hail the Power of Jesus' Name" and Rev. Guy Arnot White, the retiring pastor gave the invocation.

The sermon of the occasion was delivered by Rev. George G. Eldredge of the College Avenue Presbyterian church.

Mr. White, moderator of the Oakland Presbytery, propounded the constitutional questions to Mr. Sanborne and the prayer of installation was given by Rev. J. A. Fraser of the Brooklyn Presbyterian church of Oakland, while Rev. L. A. McAfee of the First Presbyterian church of Berkeley delivered the charge to the people of the congregation.

Rev. Sanborne concluded the evening's program with the benediction. Especial attention was given to the musical program by the choir under the direction of J. Harry Plate. A number that attracted much attention was the anthem, "My Faith Looks Up to Thee," with a violin obligato by Mrs. Madge Ripley.

Mr. Sanborne comes to Richmond with a splendid record in Oakland, where he was pastor of a large church for twelve years.

MAY INCREASE FORCE.

RICHMOND, Sept. 27. — One local industry at least will be glad when the Panama-Pacific exposition is over. Employes of Pullman company are facing short days as a result of the big travel by Pullman cars to the exposition. The force at Pullman during the past three months has been the lowest that is known since the establishment of the works here. When there is a big demand for cars there is no work for the men who repair and overhaul them.

With the cessation of the exposition travel next month, it is expected that there will be 300 to 400 men put back to work in addition to the 250 now on the job.

RAILWAY NEARLY COMPLETE.

RICHMOND, Sept. 27. — The rough grading for the new railway branch connecting the Richmond Pressed Brick works with the main line of the Santa Fe is completed and access may now be gained to the brick concern through the municipal tunnel, and along the water front from Ferry Point, over land which heretofore has been impassable cliffs. When complete the new line, which is being constructed by John H. Nicholl at a cost of $35,000, will include a rail line and a parallel highway.

GUSTAV VASA ENTERTAINS.

RICHMOND, Sept. 27. — Natives of Northern Sweden were hosts at a social evening given by the Gustav Vasa Society at Bank Hall. The committee was headed by Mrs. Chas. Johnson and Mrs. McNear and included many of the prominent members of the order. A program was rendered during the evening and the evening concluded with dancing and refreshments.

When Baby Has the Croup.

When a mother is awakened from sound sleep to find her child who has gone to bed apparently in the best of health struggling for breath, she is naturally alarmed. Yet if she can keep her presence of mind and give Chamberlain's Cough Remedy every ten minutes until vomiting is produced, quick relief will follow and the child will drop to sleep, to awaken in the morning as well as ever. This remedy has been in use for many years with uniform success. For sale by Osgood Bros. Drug Stores.—Advertisement.

CATARRH A BLOOD DISEASE; S. S. S. DRIVES IT FROM YOUR SYSTEM

Because Catarrh affects the nose and throat, causing sores in the nostrils, stoppage of air passages and gathering in the throat, it has been common practice to treat Catarrh by lotions, washes and sprays applied to these parts. This mode of treatment is entirely wrong. It cannot give permanent relief, and it is liable to irritate and aggravate the trouble. Catarrh cannot be trifled with. If allowed to run on it will disease the bronchial tubes, settle on the lungs, the stomach—indeed, it is a very serious disease. Don't treat it locally. The fact that it causes headaches is proof that it is caused by impure and diseased blood. The one treatment that has proved effective in the treatment of Catarrh is S. S. S. It is the greatest blood purifier and blood tonic known. It relieves the cause of Catarrh by the process of renourishing the blood, renewing its strength and vigor, giving new life to the red blood corpuscles, and stimulating the flow so that it has the vitality to throw off the poison and germs from the system. It is literally a blood bath. You quickly feel results. Headaches disappear, the gathering in the throat stops, the nostrils heal—before you hardly realize it you are well. S. S. S. is a marvel blood tonic and has proven effective in the treatment of all blood affections. Get a bottle rush. Scrofula. Get S. S. S. at your druggist's. If you need special advice write the S. S. MISS HELEN MEYERS, WHO WILL BE IN THE CAST OF "THE COLLEGE HERO."—Fraser photo.

There is a fascination about auctions that someone tried once to analyze. It is something compounded of curiosity, the zest for a bargain, and the charm of the unexpected, with something beside which may be suggestion—"applied psychology," on the auctioneer's part.

Whatever it is, most people know it—at least most women. In New York and London where famous works of art, antiques and rare books fall under the hammer, enthusiasts may find a worth while auction any day. But any sale that ends with "Going, going, gone," has its interest.

Reflections provoked by a recent adventure in Oakland where a Piedmont matron wandered into an auction. There were a number of quaint old things for sale and she strayed among carved walnut tables, pictures and books, with keen interest. An old-fashioned writing desk seemed worth investigating so she pulled open drawers and looked it over.

In one of the drawers at the back were a number of forgotten letters and the writing of an address caught her eye. It had a familiar look. She picked up the half-torn envelope enclosing a letter, and with a sudden singularly uncanny feeling, recognized her own hand-writing. The name was that of an old friend to whom she had written years ago.

She gathered it up and explained to the auctioneer. Its history was easily traced. The friend had married and gone away, and the family home had finally passed into other hands. The old desk with its forgotten letters had been ordered sold with the other furnishings.

To be properly romantic it should have been a love-letter. But it was a true adventure and the letter was only a school girl note to her "dearest friend."

Beautiful Shoulders and Chest

(By LILLIAN RUSSELL)

(Copyright, 1915, by Lillian Russell.)

FIRM, rounded, sloping and regular shoulders are indispensable to perfect beauty. They are more important today than ever before, as the modish bodices call for low necks for both afternoon and evening wear.

The shoulders should be equal in height and slope symmetrically in graceful curves from the base of the neck to the summit of the chest. Square, thin shoulders are as great a deformity as round shoulders, and for such deformities women have no one but themselves to thank. Defects in shoulders are brought about by neglect only. If attention were given to proper corseting, proper sitting and standing and proper exercising, shoulders would always be charming to look at at least.

The tall woman thinks by stooping a little she will appear shorter. She may realize her desire, but she will never be admired for her figure. There are women who affect a slouch from sheer laziness. They are perfectly healthy, play tennis, ride a horse and golf for hours each day, but if you observe them on the golf links you may see them in all sorts and kinds of awkward poses, twisting themselves ridiculously for driving, and stooping unnecessarily for putting. When walking they sling their golf bags over their shoulders—it is not considered sporty now to take a caddy—and slouch along after the ball. You will rarely or never see them stand erect or walk straight. What chance has a woman like that to have a fine figure? Sitting straight in a chair is very rarely done, but the importance of doing so is greater than one thinks. Fine shoulders do not look well when one arm is thrown around the back of the chair or when a woman sits sideways with one foot under her. The whole body is thrown out of position and an awkward effect is produced.

Crooked shoulders are often caused by sitting for hours, as writers and painters do, with one arm elevated, holding pen or brush, and the other at rest or nearly so. You can readily see how they develop one shoulder more than another.

Girls who are of a literary or artistic turn of mind, and yet whose devotion to ideal and intellectual beauty does not quite lead them to the neglect of that physical beauty which nature has bestowed upon them, will act wisely to correct this tendency by constant care and exercise.

A bad habit or some local weakness occasionally leads to holding one shoulder slightly in advance of the other or to bringing them both forward, giving the chest a narrow and hollow appearance, exactly the reverse of what is should have.

Such a conformation is more unsightly in woman, as she has naturally a more prominent chest than man. Her collar bones are longer and her shoulders are pressed by them farther outward and backward. There should be no salient bones or angles, but the outline should sweep in a series of gentle curves from the neck downward, each slightly in advance of the other, until they merge in the semi-circular arches which define the highest beauty of woman, the breasts. There should be no hollows under the collar bone over the apex of the lungs. When present they signify more than a want of comeliness. They betoken the danger, if not the actual presence, of that fatal and frequent disease, pulmonary consumption. It is in precisely that spot that physicians search for the earliest warnings of that malady.

The cultivation of perfect shoulders should begin in early childhood. Little girls should sit straight, walk straight with shoulders back and lie straight in bed. They should never be allowed to slouch at any time. Judgment should be used in the selection of their exercises and they should never overdo them. Proper breathing exercises develop fine lungs, chest and shoulders.

It is in the power of every woman to be beautifully formed, but it is never the result of laziness, languor or slothfulness.

Answers to Queries

E. A. K., Benwood, W. Va.: I cannot send you a formula for your arms and legs unless you tell me what is the particular beauty ill you wish to remedy. Write again, being more explicit the next time. Several times daily apply with a soft cloth the juice from a lemon which has been squeezed into half a glass of buttermilk. Apply cold cream afterward. Fresh buttermilk if it is applied as freely as water and allowed to dry on is better than almost anything else. Cucumber juice is also good. Slice the cucumbers, peel and simmer until they can be pressed through a sieve. Add a little alcohol and apply freely.

MISS HAZEL JOICE—I should advise you to let your nose alone. You only make it larger by picking it and rubbing it up. You should use an astringent lotion upon it and if you rub it at all you should do it very gently and rub down toward the tip of the nose. Witch hazel is a very good astringent.

GRACE: What a foolish little girl you are to think your whole young life is ruined because of the condition of your nose! I do not know just exactly what you mean, otherwise I would be most happy to help you. Do you mean that you had an accident, or that the condition was caused by squeezing out blackheads? If there is some injury to the nose, I suggest your consulting a physician about it, and do not try to do anything with it. A swollen nose couldn't possibly ruin a girl's life.

DIMPLES: I am wondering what kind of soap you have been using. I consider the imported castile soap the best for use on the face. Yes, oatmeal and bran are good to use instead of soap. Take equal parts of oatmeal and bran, put in small cheesecloth bags, place in water, and when the water becomes milky use the bag as you would a wash cloth. This is an excellent cleanser and leaves the face soft and smooth.

MRS. G. E. McK.: Have you ever tried to wave the hair on hairpins? After dampening the hair with a curling fluid, pin it down close to the head in wide waves with heavy hairpins. When dry, remove the pins and the hair will remain waved for some time. Or you might moisten it with the curling fluid before putting it up in kid curlers at night. It will often remain in curl for three days. The hair should not be waved or curled until it is thoroughly dry after shampooing.

Women in the News

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 27.—Mrs. Mabel Mory Etienne, 38 years old, prominent clubwoman and former wife of Joseph M. Etienne, president of the Oakland Iron Works, succumbed to heart failure at her home, 1900 Fell street, early yesterday.

Since July, 1913, when Judge Barber granted Mrs Etienne a divorce on the grounds of constructive desertion, the former vice-president of the Papyrus Club lived in seclusion with her two children at her Fell street home. She bore her suffering with remarkable fortitude for several months, then gradually faded until she was but a shadow of the once beautiful Mabel Frese. Much of her time during the last year and a half was spent in Golden Gate Park, which faces her home.

The divorce and the financial troubles which followed preyed heavily on her mind. She was forced to appeal to the courts to compel her former husband to pay the alimony of $500 a month granted by Judge Barber.

For several months Mrs. Etienne had been under the care of Dr. Conray Wall. She was extremely nervous and finally suffered a breakdown.

Last week Sunday night Mrs. Etienne complained of illness. Her physician was called, but could not help her. She died a few minutes after midnight Saturday night.

GIVES HUSBAND FOR SECURITY

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 27.—For security for money advanced—one husband.

This entry, although not exactly in the above words, was entered in divorce court records yesterday when Judge Monroe refused a divorce to Francisco Deniro.

Deniro testified yesterday morning that it was his second matrimonial venture, that one day he had expressed himself as desirous of becoming married and a friend had said he knew a woman who wanted to marry. Deniro said he was married four or five days after meeting the woman at Lankershim. They lived together only a short time when his wife, he said, piled his belongings onto their front porch and told him to leave, threatening, he said, "to shoot him like a dog."

Mrs. Deniro in the afternoon, however, told a story entirely different. She had not sent Deniro away nor threatened him, she said. According to her, he would not work. She said she had advanced him $700 and that she had little hopes of ever getting it back.

"The decree will be denied," ordered Judge Monroe. "And I will advise you to hang on to your man as security for the money."

MRS. JOHN ASTOR TO BE WAR NURSE

PARIS, Sept. 27.—Mrs. John Astor has left for the French coast to join the staff of the Duchess of Westminster Hospital as a nurse. She recently completed a course of training to fit her for her new duties at the Charing Cross Hospital in London.

Before leaving for the coast Mrs. Astor dispatched an ambulance which she presented to the hospital and will also place two other ambulances in service under her own management when she officially takes up her new duties.

Mrs. Astor's last visit to the United States was in April, 1914, when she attended the wedding of her son, Vincent. She paid a brief visit at that time to Newport.

GOVERNOR'S DAUGHTER WILL BE BRIDE

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 27.—Another exposition romance broke the Sabbath stillness with a flutter of cupid wings yesterday when Miss Lea Alexander, daughter of Governor Moses Alexander of Idaho, announced her engagement to Michael E. Spiro at the Palace Hotel.

The two have known each other a few months and have only been waiting for the governor's consent to announce the betrothal. He was informed of the engagement while attending the governors' conference in Boston last August and wrote for his daughter to wait for his arrival in San Francisco.

The governor arrived yesterday morning in company with his wife and former Governor James H. Hawley. He looked at Spiro and he looked at his daughter. Then gave them his paternal blessing. They are to be married in Boise, Idaho, October 26. After a trip to Honolulu they will settle permanently in San Francisco, where Spiro is in business.

STORK HOVERS O'ER HAZEN HYDE HOME

PARIS, Sept. 27.—From intimates of the family it is learned that Mrs. James Hazen Hyde, who was the widow of the late Count Contaut Biron before she married the American insurance magnate, is expecting an interesting event to occur shortly.

WOMAN FARMER DOUBLED VALUE OF HER LAND

STOCKTON, Sept. 27.—Miss Jennie M Hunter residing six miles east of this city, has inherited the whole of her mother's estate, said to be worth $200,000. A portion of the property was devised by a will, which has just been filed for probate, but the greater part of it was conveyed by deed.

The testatrix, Mrs Eliza Jane Hunter, was a successful woman farmer. When her husband died, 15 years ago, the estate was worth approximately $100,000.

The widow made up her mind that she would double the value, and do so without the aid of a superintendent. She went to work with a vim and demonstrated a degree of business ability that made her a conspicuous figure in Eastern San Joaquin. She and her daughter lived alone and did much of the work themselves. Each week one of them could be seen in this city selling butter and eggs. Both practiced rigid economy. Vacations, automobiles and luxuries were unknown to them, it is said.

ORLAND PUPILS WILL BUILD BIG BUNGALOW

ORLAND, Sept. 27.—A departure from the schoolroom to the more practical, is to be made at the local high school by the manual training department.

J. Busse, head of the department, has purchased a residence lot within a block of the high school. It is the plan of the instructor to build a modern bungalow on the property, the students doing all the work on the structure.

A method of financing the new building has been arranged and work will start shortly on the building. When the bungalow is completed it will either be sold or leased.

LIKE YAMA-YAMA GIRLS' GARB ARE NEW PAJAMAS

MLLE. JOCELYNE AND THE BLACK SILK PAJAMAS THAT HAVE TAKEN PARIS SOCIETY BY STORM.

PARIS, Sept. 27.—Horrors! Even the tea gown has gone.

They're using silk pajamas as afternoon dress!

But the only saving grace is that they're not ordinary pajamas, not beribboned and pink—for these are black!

When Mlle. Jocelyne, famed Paris beauty, first started the fad, fashionable Paris laughed. But now it's following her example and the craze has spread all over the city.

The black silk pajamas, loose, almost like the "Yama-Yama Girls'" dress—or bloomers, rather—in an American musical comedy, are declared by women to be more comfortable even than the old tea gown, and ever so much prettier.

They're not less expensive; a good pair of black silk pajamas costs many francs, but the modistes are laying in bolts of black silk against the coming demand.

Mlle Jocelyne, who started the fad, appeared in them at several informal affairs given at her home.

COULD NOT STAND ON FEET

Mrs. Baker So Weak—Could Not Do Her Work—Found Relief In Novel Way.

Adrian, Mich. — "I suffered terribly with female weakness and backache and got so weak that I could hardly do my work. When I washed my dishes I had to sit down and when I would sweep the floor I would get so weak that I would have to get a drink every few minutes, and before I did my dusting I would have to lie down. I got so poorly that my folks thought I was going into consumption. One day I found a piece of paper blowing around the yard and I picked it up and read it. It said 'Saved from the Grave,' and told what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for women. I showed it to my husband and he said, 'Why don't you try it?' So I did, and after I had taken two bottles I felt better and I said to my husband, 'I don't need any more,' and he said 'You had better take it a little longer anyway.' So I took it for three months and got well and strong."—Mrs. ALONZO E. BAKER, 9 Tecumseh St., Adrian, Mich.

W. C. T. U. TO WELCOME ITS DELEGATES

Prominent Speakers to Address Convention in Oakland This Evening.

Prominent citizens and officials, leading temperance advocates and churchmen will join this evening in making auspicious the 'Welcome Night' of the thirty-sixth annual convention to be held throughout the coming week by the Woman's Christian Temperance Union at the First Methodist Episcopal Church, Twenty-fourth street and Broadway. Among the speakers will be Mayor John L. Davie, Victor H. Metcalf, president of the Commercial Club; Arthur Arlett of the Public Welfare League; County Superintendent of Schools George W. Frick and Mrs. A. E. Carter of the Oakland Center of the California Civic League.

Hundreds of delegates from all parts of California have been streaming into the city for several days to attend this convention, which promises to be the most important and exciting in the history of the organization. The program embraces the temperance question from every significant angle it has assumed in the different states of the union.

There will be speeches this evening at the inaugural session from representatives of the Prohibition party, the Anti-Saloon League, the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, and during the coming days there will be other addresses from members of all the societies that favor either partial or total liquor abstinence.

Mrs. Sturtevant-Peet and Mrs. A. A. Pettit will be among the best known of the feminine champions of prohibition, the former representing the Alameda County Woman's Christian Temperance Union while the latter is president of the Fresno county W. C. T. U. The first-named will extend a welcome tonight from the hostess organization and the latter will respond for the visiting delegates.

Other features of this evening's program will be an address for the Prohibition party by Dr. D. M. Gaudier, and remarks from Rev. G. W. White, pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal Church. Mrs. Sarah J. Dorr, president of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union of California will preside, following a preliminary organ recital by Miss Bessie H. Beatty.

The first social function of the week will follow the opening ceremonies and will be a large reception given by the Alemade County Woman's Temperance Union with Mrs. Hattie McMath and Miss Jennie Lind Redfield acting as presiding hostesses. Scores of churchwomen and men will assist on the receiving committee.

Tuesday will be an exceedingly crowded day, including three important sessions. Half an hour after a devotional service conducted by Mrs. Mary M. Elmore at 8:45 o'clock, Mrs. Sara Door will call the convention to order for a morning of committee announcements and the reports of officers. The departed members will be paid tribute at a memorial service at this same session.

The work of temperance organizations in California, and a general discussion expected to be of lively character, will form the afternoon program, as "The Coming Campaign for State-wide Prohibition in California" is the principal topic scheduled. Dr. D. O. Colgorve and Mrs. Addie Garwood Estes, superintendent of the State Federation, will lead the speeches.

International character will be given the evening program on Tuesday by the appearance on the platform of Mirza Ali Kuli Kahn, charge d'affairs from Persia to the United States and representative of his country at the Exposition. The diplomat will speak on "International Brotherhood." Another interesting address on this same occasion will be a talk on "The Relation of the Public School to Peace," by Robert C. Root, Pacific Coast director of the American Peace Society.

Canes Are Barred By Venice Mayor

Employes Must Discard 'Em, Is Edict of Executive

VENICE, Cal., Sept. 27.—Unless you are physically disabled, you cannot carry a cane and be in the employ of the city of Venice.

This is the conclusion Mayor Edward A. Gerety of that city has reached, and instructions to that effect are to be issued.

"Too much time is wasted carrying a cane and the carrying of a cane has a tendency to make those who carry them pay more attention to them than they do to their duties," is what Mayor Gerety believes.

"During the past week three in the city clerk's office have been late in reaching their desks after luncheon, and in each of the three instances their excuse was that they had forgotten their canes and had to go back to the restaurant and get them. If this is true of lunchtime it must also be true of other times.

"Another thing, the cane makes posers of the young men. There is no use for them to have a cane simply to hang on their arm, to twirl, or to have the head of the cane to suck. Canes were never intended for such purposes.

"They are also a menace. Think of the damage that can be done to pedestrians by a careless man twirling a cane on a crowded thoroughfare, or carrying it so that some one may have their eyes gouged out. They have got to, go."

Such is the edict of Mayor Gerety.

WRITES SAD NOTE; LEAPS IN BAY

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 27.—CHAPTER ONE—Bewailing his fate and giving it as his intention to seek death because he had lost all his money in the lottery, an unidentified man dived from the stern rail of the steamer Cazadero near Alcatraz Island at 12:30 o'clock this morning. The reason for his plunge into the dark waters of the bay was given in an elaborate note, which was found in his hat conveniently left on the afterdeck.

CHAPTER TWO—Swimmer exhausted, but game, picked up two hours later by the oil steamer Coaling aand conveyed to San Francisco. He declined absolutely to say anything about himself, and when the vessel docked, looked over the side onto the pier and fled the scene.

The only theory which the police can advance for this strange conduct on the part of a man who had evidently been in the water for some time is that the suicide was "faked," and that the swimmer had evidently hoped to reach Alcatraz. The current was probably too strong for him and he was swept by the island. Captain Boyd of the Coalinga, which had just come through the Golden Gate from Antofagasta, explained his rescue of the drenched man.

EXPLAINS RESCUE.

"We were coming in slow and the lookout reported a man swimming. I stopped and we picked him up. He would say nothing about himself. When we docked I was surprised to see him run down the pier."

The note left by the would-be suicide was found by P. H. Cooper, a private in the Coast artillery, stationed at Fort Baker. Cooper saw the man make the "fatal" leap. The ferry boat was stopped and a lifeboat lowered, but no trace of the man could be found. In his note he declares that he hopes his story will be believed, although he doesn't leave his name and address, and he took the precaution to cut the name of its maker from his hat.

It is a strange circumstance that despite the pitiful plea contained in the note the unidentified stranger fought desperately for his life and proved a sufficiently strong swimmer to remain for two hours afloat without a life preserver, and with his clothes sodden with water among the billowy waves of the bay.

Wilson Fears Influx of Cheap Products

By Associated Press

WASHINGTON, Sept. 27.—At President Wilson's direction the Department of Commerce and the Federal Trade Commission have begun an investigation to find means to prevent a flood of cheap products from Europe on the American market at the end of the war.

The President is convinced that extensive economic readjustments will follow the restoration of peace and wants the United States to be ready to meet whatever conditions develop.

Instantly Killed by Sacramento Limited

An unidentified man was instantly killed this morning when he was struck by the Oakland, Antioch & Eastern Sacramento Limited train. The body was lying beside the tracks within the right of way just west of Crocker and as the train approached jumped to his feet. The motorman applied the emergency brakes, but could not stop the train in time and the man was crushed. Whether the man was sleeping or committed suicide is not known.

LOOK FOR CHECK MAN.

The police are seeking Charles Drexler of Seattle, who is alleged to have passed several checks in Oakland while representing himself to be Chief of Police August Vollmer of Berkeley. Drexler is also said to have represented that he was planning to buy the Fountain Buffet, Broadway and Fifteenth street, and has cashed checks there.

NURSE BEATEN IN STRUGGLE FOR LIFE

Maniac Attacks Woman in Emergency Hospital. Escapes, Is Pursued.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 27.—Leaving his bed in the Central Emergency hospital in a fit of temporary mental aberration, believed due to his injuries, Carl Debesch, victim of an automobile accident, early this morning attacked Miss M. Garrahy, a nurse, and then, interrupted by hospital stewards, flew in his hospital attire, climbed a roof, and was only recaptured after a chase of some minutes. He is being held for observation.

The attack on the nurse created a panic in the main ward of the hospital. The man, of whom little is known, was brought into the place last night, the victim of an automobile accident at Tenth and Mission streets. He was treated for a lacerated scalp. It is now believed that concussion of the brain resulted in temporary insanity.

This morning the man left his bed, wandering among the other patients. Approaching one of them, he threatened to strike him. The nurse appeared, ordering Debesch back to bed.

Then he turned on the nurse, striking her in the face and seizing the woman by the throat. Her screams brought Stewards Nicholls and Collins to her aid.

Debesch, seeing the men approach, hurled himself through a window, taking the glass with him, and fled down an alley, taking refuge on the roof of a laundry. The two stewards pursued. Cornered on the roof, the man was bound and hurried back to the hospital. He was badly cut and bruised as the result of his flight. The nurse was in a hysterical condition, but otherwise not badly injured.

Farm Bureau Asked to Supply Bayonets

HAYWARD, Sept. 27.—The Alameda County Farm Bureau has turned down a contract to supply munitions of war. Bayonets in considerable quantity have been asked for but the order has been emphatically refused. "This isn't an arms factory and we can't supply your wants," replied Secretary J. E. Welsh to Andrew Larson, farmer, who wrote inquiring if the Bureau could send him a number of bayonets.

"They come in handy around the farm and are fine for mending farming tools, being of such good steel they won't twist," said Larson. The bayonets for which the farmer has found use are the old type used about the time of the Civil War.

While Secretary Welsh has made it known in no uncertain terms that the Farm Bureau is strictly neutral and besides doesn't carry a stock of bayonets even for agricultural purposes, he has promised to secure some for the farmer.

Garment Workers in Chicago Strike

By Associated Press.

CHICAGO, Sept. 27.—The first effort of a threatened strike of garment workers, more than 15,000 of whom are employed in this city, came today, when 300 employes of a tailoring firm in South Franklin street did not go to work.

Union officials declared the men had been locked out.

A demand of the workmen for higher wages and improved working conditions caused the disagreement between the employers and the clothing manufacturers.

THIS WEEK'S SERIES.

Salt Lake vs. San Francisco.
Oakland at Portland.
Los Angeles and Vernon at Los Angeles.

The Oaks and Angels furnished the fans two interesting games yesterday. In the morning two wonderful catches by Rube Gardner saved the day for the Oaks, while a double by Reuben in the second inning followed by a two bagger off the bat of Rowdy Elliott scored the only run of the game.

Johnny Williams, on the firing line for the Angels, pitched great ball, but the doubles by Gardner and Elliott came at an opportune time.

It was Rube Ellis' two doubles and Koerner's timely hitting which counted mostly in the Angels' eleven inning victory in the afternoon. Rube doubled in the first, Koerner's single scored him. In the eleventh, with the score tied and McMullin on first, Rube again doubled which advanced "Mac" to third and gave Koerner a chance to wreak his vengeance on the Oaks who released him a while back. Phil hit a long fly to the outfield and McMullin easily scored with the run which won the game. The Oaks had two men on in their half, but Rowdy Elliott hit into a double play.

Dutch Klawitter started for the Oaks but was taken out in the sixth for Leverenz, who in turn was replaced by Prough in the seventh to make way for a pinch hitter. "Slim" Love pitched the whole game for the Angels.

"STONE-AXE" PIGSKIN CLUB FORMED

A new organization, known as the Stone-Axe Club, has entered the Association football fold. The team is composed of high school boys and working lads. "Jim" Bequette, the popular playground supervisor, has taken an interest in the organization and is teaching the team the fine points of the game. Being busy in the daytime the boys practise in the evening at Mosswood Park.

William Irwin is acting in the capacity of temporary captain until the active playing season commences. Edward Drew has been elected manager. A fine schedule has been arranged for the club with the following teams as opponents: University High, Richmond High, Hayward, Oakland Technical and Fremont second teams, Busnrod and the Mohawk clubs.

The team is composed of the following players. Front rank, Behr and Bloomhart; lock, Slattery or Mersereau; breakaways, Royce and Price; rear-rank, Folkers, Cate, hall, Irwin, first-five, Foote, second-five, Chambers, center-three, Gikbarg, wings, Lightner, Fitzgerald, wing-forward, Freitas, fullback, Fothergill, subs, Mitchener, Mitchell and Gilligan.

LIGHTWEIGHTS ARE BIG FAVORITES IN SHORT BOUT GAME

Jack Murphy Picks Six of Them for Wednesday Night Card.

Proof that promoters recognize how to tickle the palates of the boxing fans is shown in Wednesday evening's fistic menu provided at Piedmont Pavilion by the Wheelmen's Club. Lightweights form the piece-de-resistance, and lightweights have proved the only consistent money-makers in the Western pugilistic arena. Heavyweights are a rank failure in the short bout game, for they are too lumbering and slow, and by the time they get warmed up to their work the battle is over. On the other hand, the bantams and featherweights are not taken seriously. They can't do any damage in four rounds or show marked superiority. The lightweights seem to form the ideal combination for the four-round program.

SIX LIGHTWEIGHTS CARDED.

Jack Murphy of the Wheelmen's Club seems to have hit the nail square on the head by matching six lightweight performers to head the Wheelmen card. Denny, Nunes, Alveris, Ford, Herrera and Smiley can all make 135 pounds. Smiley has been fighting lads heavier than himself, but that doesn't bar him from fighting lightweights. He is a willing mixer, will take two pounds to give one, and keeps things humming in the ring all of the time. His opponent, Herrera, has won his last four fights.

DUFFY TO MEET MORAN.

Jimmy Duffy, bantamweight champion of the bay cities, will start in the ring after a long layoff when he hooks up with Frank Moran, Alameda's representative on Wednesday's card. So far, Duffy has had little trouble in defeating all comers. In fact, he has only been really extended once and that by Jimmy Magill, whom he defeated. Matchmaker Murphy tried hard to get Magill to meet Duffy again, but the West Oaklander refused.

The remainder of the Wheelmen card is up to as high a standard as has yet been set by any of the bay city promoters. A slugging match ensures to develop when Kid Vierra and Young Sylvester get together. The two mixed matters consistently for four hard rounds at the West Oakland Club a while back. They are both lads of the give-and-take class. Three other bouts will complete the card.

Thistles 2, San Francisco 0.
Barbarians 4, Vampires 2.
Olympic Club 7, Rangers 1.
Burns 3, Celtics 0.
Union Iron Works 6, Alameda 0.

California Soccer League fans were treated to a great surprise when the Thistles downed the San Francisco eleven at Eighth and Market streets yesterday. The San Francisco boys outplayed the Thistles, but the breaks were against them and they found it impossible to penetrate the Thistle defense. Glass and Watson scored the goals for the Thistles, the game ending 2 to 0 in the Thistles' favor.

The Barbs and Vampires engaged in a hard fought struggle at Ocean Shore, the former winning by a score of 4 goals to 2. Hudson's playing at center for the winners featured. He scored three goals.

At the Exposition the Olympic Club team took the Vampires down the line, four goals for Montleth, two by Balmain and one by Hancock making it seven for the Post Streets against their opponents' one.

The Union Iron Workers had little difficulty in disposing of the Alameda eleven at Croll's. Three goals by Wood and one each by Duncan, Norbury and Sharpe won the game, 6 to 0, for the Iron Workers.

ORIGINALS TOO MUCH FOR COLLEGIANS

St. Mary's College proved easy for the Oakland Commercial Club Originals at Grove-street park yesterday, the clubmen winning by a score of 20 to 0. The Collegians were put on the defensive throughout the game and were handicapped by the advantage of weight which the Commercials held. The Commercials tried out several new trick plays and also played an open game, all of which puzzled the Saints.

CLAREMONT GOLF TEAM WINS FROM SEQUOYAH, 20-18

Neville Again Loses to McGurrin, But Teammates Triumph.

Showing more of their expected form, the Claremont golf team defeated the Sequoyan players yesterday on the latter's links in the second inter-club match, winning twelve out of the twenty matches played. The first half of the tourney, played at Claremont, resulted in a ten to ten tie. Though Sequoyah lost the tourney, the club made many friends. Visitors were delighted with the wonderful course and picturesque surroundings of this beautiful club.

There were many close matches yesterday, and several veteran players showed to advantage. Claremont managed to win despite the fact that they were handicapped by the absence of Heinrich Schmidt and Frank Kaike. Jack Neville again went down to defeat at the hands of F. E. McGurrin, two up and one to play. The last time these players met the match went to an extra hole and McGurrin won.

Five Claremonters struck to the very end and won out by the small margin of one hole. B. D. Adamson had little difficulty in disposing of Br. Heathcote of Claremont by 5 and 4. Colonel W. S. Rheem had one of his days when the ball would act just about as he wished it to and when Dr. J. F. Lane of Claremont ran up against the Sequoyahan there was little or no contest. Seven and five was the result.

W. W. Potter, Claremont's prize putter, found the course to his liking and scored up a win of 4 and 3 over Dennis Searles, the president of the Sequoyah Club. Searles won a cup recently and was expected to give Potter a closer game.

R. M. Fitzgerald, one of the old guard members of Claremont, proved that he has lost none of his golfing spirit and skill by winning from Walter Wood, 6 and 4. L. J. Richardson of the Claremont Club took victory from J. H. Hunt in their match at the nineteenth hole, both players going at top form throughout. The scores:

TOURNEY CLOSES WITH W. F. BLASSE AS RIFLE KING

E. Enge made the best score on the target of honor, 70 out of 75 points on the closing day of the international shooting tournament in Shell Mound Park yesterday. Dr. E. M. Taber of Los Angeles was a close second with the same score. W. F. Blasse, the local champion, is high man on the king target and will be proclaimed Schuetzenkoenig at the prize distribution on Tuesday night, September 28th, at the German House, Turk and Polk streets. C. A. Pattberg made the best score on the German ring target and G. Kimball is in line for the first prize on the pistol and revolver target. The range was crowded all day yesterday and marksmen from all parts of the country participated. The Independent Rifles and the Olympic Club teams ran up some exceptional high scores on the military target. SANTA CLARA TRIMS OLYMPIC CLUB

SAN JOSE, Sept. 27.—A team almost as strong as the Olympics, who battled Stanford to a standstill two weeks ago, was defeated here yesterday when Santa Clara University won from the Winged O team by a score of 8 to 3. As a result hopes of the Mission university supporters have been set on winning the big Rugby game this year, which will be staged between Stanford and Santa Clara instead of Stanford and California.

WALTER CARLISLE IS GIVEN HOOK

PORTLAND, Ore., Sept. 27.—Walter Carlisle, veteran Coast League outfielder, was given five days' notice of release today by Manager McCredie of the Portland team. Carlisle came to Portland from Vernon several weeks ago in an even trade for Outfielder Walter Doane.

Alexander and Shore To Pitch the Opener?

Philadelphia and Boston Fans Are Already Doping Big Series

(By BILLY FITZ.)

Both the Philadelphia Nationals and the Boston Red Sox need only three more victories each to crown their respective championships. The Phillies have two more games scheduled and the Red Sox nine. The two teams have been conceded the pennants by rival managers.

Speculation on the outcome of the world's series is being indulged in at a lively rate. Whether Alexander will be able to stand the strain of bearing the major burden of the twirling assignment for his team is a moot question. Supporters of the Phillies' chances are counting on Chalmers to help out with at least one victory, while Mayer and possibly Rixey, are figured to be in a position to stand in the breach should one be created by the fall down of either of the stellar selections. Lucerne and Cravath are the hitters upon whom Moran is resting his confidence to offset the efforts of such men as Speaker, Hooper and the [illegible] tion.

Baseball fans who place their confidence in the Red Sox point to the probability that Shore, Foster and Leonard, the probable Boston starters in the box, will be able to hold the Philadelphia batsmen well in check.

Alexander, admittedly the king of present day pitchers, looms up as the big factor in the series if the participants are the clubs which now seem the all-but-nigh inevitable contenders. Upon his ability to win the games in which he is starred to win the games depends, in the opinion of all baseball observers, the chances of the Phillies for capturing the world's title.

The Federal League race, tear as it is to a close, still is the style between Pittsburgh, Chicago and St. Louis, with the chances seemingly to favor the first named club.

The feature of the week in Coast League circles was undoubtedly the work of the Oakland infield which seemed to put confidence in the pitchers and pepper in the entire club. Five out of seven from the Angels is a feat that even the Seals could well be proud of. Elliott has taken the baton north to Portland where a desperate battle for the c

MANY ORDERS IN MINING MARKET

Buying Stiffens as Result of Low Close Last Week; Comstocks Quiet.

Taking advantage of the lower prices that prevailed toward the close of last week, the public came back in the mining shares market with a considerable volume of buying orders and prices all along the line stiffened immediately. The bidding for Kewanas at 35c and 40c continued briskly until 15,000 shares had changed hands, the stock twice selling at 40c. Atlanta went from bids of 26c to 27c. Merger Mines sold unchanged at 15c and the minor Goldfields were firm at Saturday's prices. The advance in Goldfield Consolidated, which has amounted to 12c per share within a few days, continued, the stock going from $1.40 to sales at $1.42½. A greatly improved showing in the property is given as the reason for the sudden revival of interest in Consolidated.

Cash Boy was again in favor, and more than 10,000 shares were bought at 5c, as compared with Saturday's close of 4c. Rescue was firm at 11c and West End sold unchanged at 60c.

The drop in Rochester was of brief duration. Buying orders from Lovelock and eastern cities carried the price from 39c to 43c on opening sale and further orders were executed at 49c, within one cent of the top for this stock.

The Comstocks were unusually quiet. Sierra Nevada advanced from 18c to 19c, Con Virginia from 12c to 13c, Mexican was firm at 32c and Ophir sold at 18c and 17c.

GRAIN

CHICAGO, Sept. 27.—Big receipts northwest had a weakening influence today on the wheat market. The opening, which ranged from 2¾c decline to 2⅝@2¼c advance, with December at 94¾c to 95c, and May at 97c to 97½c, was followed by something of a rally, but later the market showed a loss all around.

The close was unsettled, ¼c to ¾c net lower, with December at 94c and May at 96¾c.

Corn sagged with wheat. After opening unchanged to half a cent higher, prices underwent a moderate general setback.

The close was heavy at ¼c to 1¼c under Saturday night.

Smallness of offerings tended to steady oats. Provisions hardened owing to buying by commission houses.

PEACHES GLUT LOCAL MARKET

VAST FRUIT STOCK LOWERS PRICES

Heavy Receipts of Grapes Continue, Causing Weaker Range of Quotation.

The market opened very quiet with a considerable quantity of carry-over stock, particularly peaches. Prices for peaches, with the trade continuing dull, ranged from 25c to 40c, with an occasional few fancy brands bringing 50c. Receipts of grapes, especially Blacks, continue liberal and prices weakened under the big arrivals, except for a few fancy lots. Tokays were forwarded in big supply, as were also Malagas and Muscats. Seedless grapes were rather scarce and sold readily at quotation. The fig market continued well supplied with no change in prices. Pears met a better trade today, but with practically no change in prices. A considerable quantity of corn of inferior quality arrived in the market and was hard to dispose of. Better qualities brought from $1 to $1.50, according to grade. Tomatoes saw no change today, selling all the way from 25c to $1.

DORA MAY HOWE, AT THE MACDONOUGH.

"Within the Law," striking story of the modern crook and his battle of wits with the police, and of the fight of a woman against an adverse world, in which she finally wins her victory with honor, is a strong opening for the brilliant season of the Virginia Brissac and Norman Hackett players who opened their engagement at the Macdonough last night. The play is one of the best of the big New York offerings of years. The company is equal to it, and Miss Brissac and her talented leading man are aided, in John Wray, by one of the best producers in the world.

"Within the Law," Bayard Veiller's story of Mary Turner, the girl who, barred from honest employment by the police after a prison term wrongfully imposed, turns "legal swindler," is the big "screen" play of Heatergodom. It has all the modern improvements—revolver with a Maxim silencer, deadline noiseless death a plea for a living minimum wage for the shop girl, a moral—and, what is far more important, a love story, and a deal of entertainment.

Miss Brissac, as Mary Turner, has a remarkable role which she portrays in a remarkable manner. The girl of the author's conception is a composite of others, perhaps a little cleverer, and perhaps there are as many ways of acting it as there are actresses. Miss Brissac has her way—and "puts it over." The large crowd last night gave her encore after encore, which shows her success. Norman Hackett had the part of the young lover.

Probably the best opportunity for original acting came to John Wray in the piece. The detectives in the play were the usual detectives—standard stypes. In fact, their counterparts, even in appearance, can be found in Oakland's city hall. The other crooks were like crooks seen in other plays—all except Joe Garson. He was a forger and a crook, but a "somewhat different" one, and at the end proves one of the real heroes of the play. Mr. Wray's acting of this difficult part was masterly.

Dora May Howe, the little Alameda girl who forsook the University of California and society some time ago for a stage career, appeared as Agnes Lynch, the blackmailer. Miss Howe has wonderfully improved in her art, and her acting last night was a surprise to her friends. Tonight is to be "Alameda Night" at the Macdonough in her honor, and college mates of Miss Brissac and Mr. Hackett, both graduates of the University of California, plan this week to visit the Macdonough on a special night to greet them.

Gene Yarborough, Frank McDermott, Rodney Hildebrandt, Edna Inglis, Lester Paul, Ferdinand Munier and several other clever stars are in the supporting company. "Within the Law" will run all week, to be followed by "The Trail of the Lonesome Pine."

ORPHEUM

One small girl, with one small white accordeon, and one small pink face, made one large hit yesterday before a very large audience of vaudeville lovers. Her name—that is, her stage name—is Flavilla. She is billed as the "Dancing accordeon player. She didn't dance much—she played quite a bit—but she only got off the stage after a series of encores that rang the rafters.

All of which proves that a real artist must use her face as well as her accordeon. Miss Flavilla's was never idle. She smiled, individually, it seemed, at everyone in the big Orpheum audience—and everyone smiled back.

The Orpheum bill this week is "All vaudeville." Furthermore, it's all to the good. Pretty girls galore, comedians in profusion, music, laughter and joy rule. There are Flipflax and Panlo, who make laughs with every motion; Nina Payne, the dancing beauty, with clever Joe Niemeyer; Charlie Howard, the "champion drunk," with Margaret Taylor and Kernan Cripps in some more comedy; Milton and the De Long Sisters in the last word in burlesque; and for a variety, the California Beauties in classical dancing.

Nina ayne and Joe Niemeyer made another big hit on the Orpheum bill. Miss Payne, who is singularly beautiful, also is possessed of a remarkable voice and is a dancer second to none in vaudeville. Niemeyer is also a clever dancer. Their act is a series of songs and dances, prettily costumed and cleverly presented. The other bit of all round and eccentric dancing is offered by the Grazers, who have an act that opens with a Tango and ends with a dance that no dancer ever attempted before.

Charlie Howard, with his company, offers his famous imitation of an inebriate with all its garnishments, each a laughter-maker. Lohse and Sterling have an acrobatic turn of extreme difficulty. Flipflax and Panlo offer a series of falls, assisted by a few chairs and a table. Orpheum motion pictures round out the bill.

PANTAGES

With two big offerings, Harry Cleveland's sensational play "On the Youkon," and "The Birthday Party," a tabloid musical comedy in which juvenile stars impersonate many famed stage stars, the bill at the Pantages for the coming week is one of the triumphs of the coming season. Every act is new and original—and every one a success.

R. C. Faulkner, declared to be President Wilson's double, was one of the most original features. He appeared in a series of living cartoons on the Washington administration and scored heavily. Louis Winch and Josephine Poore appeared in a musical melange set in a girls' boarding school. Spencer and Williams appear in new music and new songs, and the Parisian Trio offered a novel musical bit. Hanlon, Dean and Hanlon appear in a gymnastic act. Motion pictures round out the bill.

"The Birthday Party" is a series of imitations of such stars as Harry Lauder, Vernon Castle and Mrs. Castle, Eva Tanguay, Enrico Caruso and others by juvenile stars. "On the Youkon" is a dramatic Alaskan incident. Clarence Wurdig and Mabel Fitzpatrick, old Oakland favorites, return in the cast.

OAKLAND PHOTO

Blanche Sweet and Carlyle Blackwell are the two names that head the cast in the production of Edward Locke's famous drama, "The Case of Becky," which commenced a three-day engagement as the feature of the program at the Oakland Photo Theater yesterday.

Never before has Blanche Sweet been seen in a role similar to the one she plays in this photodrama. When "The Case of Becky" was produced by David Belasco, as a drama, it caused a sensation in the theatergoing world. Not since the days of "Dr. Jekyl and Mr. Hyde" has a play of dual personality been presented to the public. And when the victim of the two selfs is a young girl, especially of Miss Sweet's charm and ability the announcement that the photodrama is now being seen here is one of unusual interest.

As the quiet and winsome Dorothy, Miss Sweet wins a host of friends, but when her personality changes before the eye into the malicious and disagreeable Becky, the audience is at a loss as to what is going to happen.

On the same program, which will be seen for the last time tomorrow evening, is Bickel & Watson in "The Fixer," adapted from William M. Goodhue's famous comecy success, "Hello Bill."

BROADWAY

One of the biggest ovations ever given a performer in Oakland was received by Roy Clair, the comedian, when the curtain rose yesterday afternoon on the spectacular three act musical comedy, "Fiddle Dee Dee," at the Broadway theater. The young star is playing a return engagement by popular demand and proved himself as clever as ever in the leading comedy role of the big Weber and Fields' success.

Assisting Clair in the comedy was Ray Duncan, who needs no introduction to Oakland theater-goers. Duncan took his role much the same as usual and when not acting as a foil to Clair managed to create a small riot himself. Charlie Reilly returns to Oakland in the cast.

The big three act production proved a delightful change from the usual hodge-podge of comedy and song and the audience showed its appreciation of the change by repeated curtain calls at the conclusion of each act, even forcing Roy Clair to make a "speech."

"Fiddle Dee Dee" proved a great success owing to the augmented company which contains some names which are famous here and in the east. The comedy was snappy and the players sustained throughout the punch that was in the lines. The musical numbers were up to the standard established by Roy Clair when he was here before and there was nothing to be wished for.

FRANKLIN

"The Regeneration," the third release of the new William Fox feature productions, was shown at the Franklin yesterday. It is one of the strongest pictures that has ever been filmed, and contains scenes of New York life that are too human and too perfect to describe by words.

The story of "The Regeneration" is based on the life of Owen Kildare, the famous writer and so-called Bowery Kipling who gave to the world in his book, "My Mamie Rose," a story that was proclaimed a classic from the moment it made its public appearance.

No expense was spared in making "The Regeneration." Under the direction of R. A. Walsh, and with scenes and settings on which no cost has been spared, with types from the Bowery that it took weeks and months to secure, and in fact with everything as nearly human as human ingenuity can make it, this picture is an epoch in the film world.

The part of Mamie Rose is taken by Anna Nilsson, who for the past four years has been considered one of the sweetest and most charming actresses of the shadowy screen. Others to contribute to the success of the cast are Rockcliffe Fellowes, who became a star on Broadway his first year in the theatrical world; William Sheer, who has made millions of friends on the screen through his exceptionally fine character work, and thousands of others who go to make this picture a great success.

"The Regeneration" will be shown again today, tomorrow and Wednesday.

MOTORCYCLE ACCIDENT.

Miss Louise Radzwell, who was riding on the rear of a tandem motorcycle, driven by Edward Smith of 1641 Everett street, Alameda, was knocked unconscious last night when the motorcycle collided with an automobile driven by Ernest Kline, of 424 East Fourteenth street. She was treated at the Melrose police emergency hospital and taken to her home.

POISONED HIMSELF AT 40

Death by slow poison is killing many a man, young in years, who has made the fatal mistake of failing to understand the warnings of kidney trouble.

When young kidneys begin to lag in throwing off natural poisons that accumulate in your body, the first warnings come in little twinges, or stiffness across your back and hips. Urination may be too frequent; you may feel "tired" in the morning when you should feel your best.

The best known remedy for these troubles is GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules. This remedy has stood the test for more than 200 years since it was first produced in the ancient laboratories in Haarlem, Holland. It acts directly on the kidneys and bladder and gives relief at once, or your money will be refunded. GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules are imported direct from Holland, and can be had at any drug store. Prices 25c, 50c and $1.00. Accept no substitute. Guaranteed and sold by the Owl Drug Co.—Advertisement.
